11/5/1934, AR34-WW34, Comiskey Park

Bryan Sakolsky's Walla Walla Wombats complete a superb 124 regular season record by winning their 5th TML Franchise Championship and the 11th TML Championship for Manager Sakolsky! This continued their "even numbr" TML Titles, having won in 1936, 1938 and 1940. Their opponent in the TML World Series was Willie Jelks's Arkansas Travelers who had won TML Titles in 1937, 1939 and 1941. (Chestertown last year broke through this tandem!) Walla Walla reached the TML World Series by defeating Beverly (again!) in 6 games! Arkansas knocked off the defending TML Champs Chestertown, also in 6 games! Walla Walla's Playoff MVP Charlie Gehringer batted .429 (21/49), with 16 runs, 14 RBI, 4 HR, 8 W and only 1 K.

ALBANY Avalanche

Manager: Pat Barry (Elizabeth)

Age: 67 Occupation: Retired & Baseball Junkie

The Season Story

For the second straight year, Albany's offense was sterling lead by Lou Gehrig (.390 47 HR 163 RBI). Earl Averill and Joe West contributed over 100 runs created while Goose Goslin and Gabby Hartnett contributed over 90. Up and comer Max Bishop managed 107 walks in 267 at bats, while Joe Cronin and Frankie Frisch turned in decent years. Five staters turned in solid years for the Avs (Wild Bill Hallahan 16-9 4.07 ERA, Larry French 15-10 4.00, Ray Parmelee 14-6 3.41, Earl Whitehall 14-9 4.41, and May Day Malone 12-6 5.03). With the abdication of the Erl of Walla, Albany looks forward to a spirited pennant race with Beverly and Oakdale. These are the good old days for this iteration of Albany.

BEVERLY Hillbillies

Manager: Mike Dickinson (Andrea)

Age: 55 Occupation: Meteorologist/Data Scientist

The Season Story

1934 was going to be the last big run for Beverly. Fueled with unbridled optimism, the Hillbillies surrendered draft picks to boost an already formidable offense in hopes of making a World Series run. In the end, it was not worth the investment. Beverly finished 3rd offensively well behind Walla Walla and Arkansas. Mel Ott had a spectacular year. Offseason acquisition Hank Greenberg also had a solid season. The pitching staff was pieced together and featured six players with double digit wins. No stars but decent arms that can get through a season. However, you need stars to make waves in the playoffs. The Hillbillies were outslugged and outclassed by the Wombats. Beverly finished a distant 2nd to Walla Walla and again (7th straight year) faced them in the playoffs and again lost, though put up a decent fight. Beverly has reached the end of its lengthy playoff run. The slow road to rebuilding has begun.

BLOOMINGTON Burning Bunyans

Manager: Bob Weisman (Janet)

Age: 64 Occupation: Retired Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

Tired of finishing third in a two-team playoff format, Bloomington shook up its management, bringing in the spirit of Herbert Hoover or Hoobert Heaver to general manage the team. Taft, after successfully driving the US into its worst depression economically, cleaned house of several players. The result was a 98-loss season, its worst since 1952. Hoover wasn't in favor of suffrage, but both Bobo Newsom and Freddie Fitzsimons, who were both in the top 20 in quality starts, had plenty of suffrage in their starts. The offense had a few part-timers (Porter, Taylor, Orsatti, Galatzer) with some offensive punch. When they started, the offense was better...in a few home games...in Block 3....at times. Still, Hoover's typical skill was represented by Harlond Clift and Leo Durocher having the most plate appearances, giving merely Lip service to competing. Hoover noted that the five-year plan was now in place, leading Bloomington fans to await more depression.

BRONX Highlanders

Manager: Hank Pedicone (Eileen)

Age: 74 Occupation: Retired NYS Attorney

The Season Story

It was yet another mediocre season in the Bronx, as the Highlanders could manage only 73 wins. Red Rolfe was very quiet in his final retro season, getting only 255 ABs, with 0 HRs. Ripper Collins did hit 34 HRs, and Joe Vosmik sparkled with a .365 BA. Unfortunately, no one else hit more than 8 HR or batted as high as .300. Tex Carleton and Mel Harder posted 19 and 16 wins, respectively, with ERAs under 3.00, but that was it as far as pitching highlights go. Hopefully, fortunes will improve as the remaining roster journeys back to the days of their prime.

CHESTERTOWN Blue Herons

Manager: Eric Rogers

Age: 66 Occupation: Retired Meteorologist

The Season Story

Another fine season for the Blue Herons, finishing 2nd in the Atmospheric Conference with 91 wins. Solid starting pitching was largely behind the team's success, with two 20 game winners (Ruffing, 24-7, 3.01 ERA; Mungo, 22-14, 3.56 ERA). The offense was led by Buddy Myer (.331 BA) and Wally Berger (.316 BA, 37 HR, 169 RBI). The drive for a second straight championship were dashed/bashed by the Arkansas Travelers 4-2 series win in the Atmo Conference playoffs. AR outscored the Blue Herons 58-37, with CH's pitching staff racking up an awful 8.81 ERA. I may be able to wring one more decent season out of this team if they can draft enough decent pitching in the 1933 draft.

DULUTH Thundercats

Manager: Kevin Tyle (Bryan)

Age: 60 Occupation: Computer Administrator/Meteorologist

The Season Story

Another in the long series of "bad, but not bad enough" campaigns in the 1930s for the Thundercats. Pitching as usual was pathetic, with only Fred Frankhouse passing muster on the hill. Keeping the Cats from the lowest depths were some good offensive performances by the "three C's" ... aka Cochrane, Cuyler, and Combs. Persistence, or perhaps more accurately "climo", looks to be the best forecast for 1933.

NORTH ADAMS Bevers

Manager: Mike Ameen

Age: 60 Occupation: Restaurateur & H.S. Softball Coach

The Season Story

The story of the 1934 North Adams Bevers is not pretty. Expectations were to play close to .500 ball but with a 48-106 6th place finish in the Atmospheric Conference we fell a mile and a half short of that goal. With a team era of 6.00 and with only one pitcher with 10 wins (Elden Auker 10-9 3.67) the Bevers need to pitch much better in 1933 to make any in roads back to competitiveness. Offensively North Adams was led by Babe Herman (.343 35/9/16) Freddie Lindstrom (.331 32/7/6 and Eric McNair (.294 23/5/10 with 91 rbi's). Jim Bottomley chipped in with 15 Home Runs. 1933 could not come fast enough for North Adams. Hopefully things will improve from the disaster that was 1934!

OAKDALE Ravagers

GM: Mike Landin (Teri)

Age: 71 Occupation: Retired/Senior Softball Player

The Season Story

The Ravagers put up their best season since 1941 when they were also 72-82. This is a good sign for a team “turning the corner” and becoming competitive again. Bill Terry, Heinie Manush and Marv Owen were a primary reason for the improvement, each with over 200 hits and 120 RC! An up-and-coming Babe Ruth socked a team-tying 24 HRs in a part-time role! The offense was the “bright spot” as the pitching was dreadful, with a team ERA of 5.06. Still, the offense was strong enough that Ray Benge, Burleigh Grimes and Willis Hudlin were each able to notch 11+ victories! Snipe Hansen managed 10 Saves and 15 RP, despite a 5+ ERA. The primary goal in the off-season heading back to 1933 will be to obtain some serious pitching help to go along with what should be an increasingly strengthening offense. We are still waiting for Rogers Hornsby to take on a more full-time role!

SEATTLE Rainiers

Manager: Rob Fovell (Mei-Ying)

Age: 66 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

The Rainiers limped to a 63-91 finish, 61 games behind, actually fairing worse at home (.390) vs. road (.429). The team bids adieu to Zeke Bonura, who led the team with a .316/.399/.539 line for 131 runs created over all 154 games, and to George Selkirk, who was the present manager's first 1st round draft pick. Stan Hack also nears the end of his storied career. George Blaeholder posted a team best 3.57 ERA for a team-leading 227 IP, going 12-16. Most of our hurlers return for 1933 but there will be a lot of new faces on "next" year's squad.

More smoke and mirrors as it seemed to be the pitching that unexpectedly propelled the Sioux to a nice bounce-back from the next year and a winning record. Tommy Bridges was as close to a sure thing as the fans had seen in racking up 24 wins in leading a staff with four 10-game winners. Sioux Falls defense was also up to par, leading the league in fielding. Moore/Chapman/Suhr proved a solid middle of the order, but holes on the front and back end seemed to doom the team, especially losing a healthy share of one-run games. The downhill slide looks like it will be renewed in 1933.

SUMMER Cyclones

Manager: (Vacant)

Age: xx Occupation: xxx

The Season Story

An even worse season, finishing in last place with 107 losses! The team will likely be at “rock bottom” for the next few years before the rebuilding process shows any significant results. This past season, there was no standout offensive star, but more of a balanced offense led by Ed Coleman, Willie Kamm, Hughie Critz and Mark Koenig, each with 54 to 55 RC. No one drove in 100 runs and no one scored 100 runs. There was not much speed either, with 22 SB and 17 CS. The pitching “Ace” was Fritz Ostermueller with a 10-12 record and a 2.88 ERA. Hank Johnson led the team in wins with 12, but also lost 27. Worse yet was Luke Hamlin with 28 losses! No one had more than 5 saves! Tough season. As noted last season, this team could still use a full time Manager to bring some “life” back to this storied franchise.

WALLA WALLA Wombats

Manager: Bryan Sakolsky (Carol)

Age: 57 Occupation: Technology Sales Manager

TALL Champion

The Season Story

The Wombats had a stellar season winning 124 games and scoring 1,114 runs while yielding only 561, culminating in a World Series victory over Arkansas. The Wombats were second in team batting, first in home runs (40 more than the next team) and led the league in ERA, 0.84 better than any other team in the league. Top offensive performers were Hal Trosky .357/.441/.657 43 HRs, Bob Johnson .341/.393/.567 34 HRs, Charlie Gehringer .354/.442/.527, Odell Hale .338/.382/.529 and Paul Waner .315/.393/.500. Four players had over 100 RBI: Johnson (157), Trosky (154), Hale (115) and Gehringer (107) and five players had over 100 runs scored. Buzz Boyle slashed .355/.458/.572 with 81 RBI in only 346 at-bats. But pitching was the key, the big three of Dizzy Dean, Paul Dean and Carl Hubbell combined for an 80-19 record. Dizzy Dean went 35-5 with 3 saves and a league-leading 2.27 ERA, his brother Paul went 19-7 with 3 saves and a 2.46 ERA. Hubbell finished 26 7 with 2 saves and a 2.92 record. Three other pitchers won 10 or more games: Bill Lee 16-5, Euel Moore 10-1 and Dutch Leonard 10-2.

Stat Key

RC (Runs Created) = [(A times B) plus C], all divided by D, where

$$A = H + BB + HBP - CS - GIDP$$

$$B = TB + [.26 \times (BB - IBB + HBP)]$$

$$C = .52 \times (SH + SF + SB)$$

$$D = AB + BB + HBP + SH + SF$$

RC / 27 outs: runs created per 27 outs; in other words, the number of runs a player would create if he were to bat in all nine positions in the batting order.

QS (Quality Starts): the number of starts in which a pitcher pitches six (6) innings or more and gives up three (3) runs or fewer.

OAVG: the batting percentage against each pitcher.

Batting & Pitching Leaders: the following symbols were used to denote individual accomplishments that were record-breakers:

♦ - TML Record

◇ - Tied TML Record

Team Stats: an asterisk (*) preceding any stat indicates that the player or pitcher led his Association in that stat category; a caret (^) indicates that the player or pitcher tied for the lead in his Association in that stat category.
