ALBANY Avalanche

Manager: Pat Barry (Elizabeth)

Age: 64 Occupation: Retired; Cat Servant; MLB Datacaster

The Season Story

The team cratered to 46 wins , with good draft picks their only reward. The team had five .300 hitters but only Lou Finney had over 300 at bats. There was a power shortage. Eddie Joost led the team with a paltry 14 followed by Lou Stringer with 12. What they lacked in power, they could not make up in speed as the team swiped only 29 bases, led by the efficient Nanny Fernandez who took 13 while being caught only once. The pitching was atrocious posting a 5.76 ERA. Larry French excelled as a starter/reliever, the others were given jobs at Esso Oil Corporation at seasons end. There is some talented old guys coming through the system: Larry French and Joe Cronin chief among them, but they ain't nothin' to make the folks write home, yet.

ARKANSAS Travelers

Manager: Bill "Willie" Jelks (Lynda)

Age: 79 Occupation: Retired USAF Flyboy

The Season Story

After many seasons of frustration, the Travs finally put it together after some solid drafts and fortuitous trades. The pitching staff led by Mort Cooper (20-5, 2.74) compiled the third best ERA in the league and the offense led by last year player Stan Musial (.350/.428/537) led the league on offensive production. With a solid man at every position and a very promising pitching staff, the future looks bright for the boys from Arkansas.

BEVERLY Hillbillies

Manager: Mike Dickinson (Andrea)

Age: 52 Occupation: Meteorologist/Scientist

The Season Story

A poor start to the season likely kept the Hillbillies out of the playoff chase. After a mediocre period 1, the team found its stride and finished strongly resulting in the first winning record since 1950. The outfield powered the Beverly offense with Enos Slaughter and Mel Ott putting up MVP-caliber seasons. Dolph Camilli led the team in home runs. Pitching has long been an issue for the team but, overall, the starting pitching did well with Bob Carpenter leading the team with 17 wins. AL Benton and Johnny Podgajny also posted double-digit win totals. The team looks to further improve as keep players return to the roster leading into the 1930s.

BLOOMINGTON Burning Bunyans

Manager: Bob Weisman (Janet)

Age: 61 Occupation: Retired Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

In 1942, 89 wins were only good enough for one game out of the playoffs, so 86 wins in 1941 weren't going to do it (missed by 2 games). The Burning Bunyans were second in batting average, but in the middle of the pack in runs, due to little power. Elbie Fletcher and Barney McCosky both created over 100 runs, but most of the others were primarily single hitters, despite fairly good averages. The team did rally a bit against the division portion of the schedule, but that was mostly due to a few good series against the weaker teams. The pitching, the strong suit last season (or should I say next season) was more middle of the pack. Al Javery had a fine year as the workhorse, but everyone else had limited roles. And, the lack of a bullpen led to a near .500 record in 1-run games. Early Wynn did chalk up career win 200 during the season. So, next year's team looks to be better offensively, but will likely finish 3 games out of a playoff spot.

BRONX Highlanders

Manager: Hank Pedicone (Eileen)

Age: 71 Occupation: Retired Attorney

The Season Story

It was an unexpectedly successful season in the Bronx: Despite a pitching staff of mostly limited or barely limited pitchers, the Highlanders managed a team ERA of 3.43, and saw three pitchers win 18 games each (Wilkie, Olsen and Tobin), and reliever-by-necessity Bill Dietrich post 17 saves. Bill Nicholson and the DiMaggio brothers powered a fairly potent offense that accounted for 119 HRs on the season. The "smoke and mirrors" performances continued through a hard-fought Divisional playoff series as the Highlanders upset the regular season leaders, Seattle Rainiers, in a seven-game thriller. Then the smoke cleared, the mirrors broke, and the Summer Cyclone put an end to the fantasy. The Highlanders managed to blow a 3-1 series lead, as the Cyclones roared back to win the last 3 games going away. Making it even more painful, Summer pounded out 11 HRs to NONE for the Bronx, and outscored the Highlanders 46-29. An ignominious ending, but it sure was fun while it lasted!

CHESTERTOWN Blue Herons

Manager: Eric Rogers

The Season Story

"Yuck" best describes the '42 Blue Herons season, with by far the worst offense in the league. What can you say when your HR/RBI leader (Jimmy Bloodworth, 17 HR, 70 RBI) puts up .190/.229/.319 AVG/OBP/SPC numbers! Only the half-decent starting pitching, led by Red Ruffing (10-12, 2.49 ERA, 14 CG) kept the Herons from losing 100+ games. The 1941 Herons appear to be better on paper. We'll see.....

DULUTH Thundercats

Manager: Kevin Tyle (Bryan)

Age: 58 Occupation: Computer Administrator/Meteorologist

The Season Story

The last (first?) of a long run of good years for Duluth. Still a good core led by Johnny Mize, Bobby Doerr and Tommy Holmes, but the corner outfield was lacking. The formerly strong pitching staff was overstretched and a mere shadow of its former self; only Johnny Vander Meer and Hal Newhouser had decent years on the hill. Things really begin to unravel in 1941 ... the question will be how long will the rebuild last?

NORTH ADAMS Bevers

Manager: Mike Ameen

Age: 58 Occupation: Restaurateur & H.S. Softball Coach

The Season Story

Well the 1942 North Adams Bevers finished 83-71 and in 4th place 16 games behind in the Atmospheric Division. The Bevers were led by Wally Judnich and Charlie Keller offensively with Dixie Walker and Tommy Henrich having good seasons and contributing as well. The Bevers hit .264 as a team led by Judnich's .338. On the pitching side of the ball Hank Borowy going 14-2 (2.28) and Ted Lyons 11-5 (2.64) anchored a solid staff with Bob Mincrief, Elden Auker and Roy Henshaw all winning 10 games. The team era was 3.91. Moving onto 1941 the Bevers have a strong outfield and some power in the lineup but the season will depend on a weaker pitching staff and how well they hold up. They are the key to a competitive season. The playoffs are possible but everything has to go right for the Bevers in a strong Atmospheric Division.

OAKDALE Ravagers

GM: Mike Landin (Teri)

Age: 68 Occupation: Retired/Senior Softball Player

The Season Story

Back to reality after a “housecleaning” of player talent following the awful showing in the 1943 playoffs. Thanks to Albany and Walla Walla, a 94-loss season was still good enough for a 5th place finish. Holdovers Lou Boudreau and Phill Cavarretta led the team on offense, playing every day. There was a team “power outage” as no one even reached 8 HRs on the season! The big story though was pitching “Ace” Dutch Leonard going 22-14 with a 2.54 ERA, while leading the league in CG (28) and IP (336), along with a league-tying 5 shutouts. Leonard was responsible for nearly 40% of Oakdale’s wins! Tom Early was 14/14 in Save opportunities! Looking back to the upcoming 1941 season, it appears that the Ravagers will be competitive at times, but as the 1930s approach ... this team will be unrecognizable and may become the worst team in the TML for several seasons!

SEATTLE Rainiers

Manager: Rob Fovell (Mei-Ying)

Age: 63 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

In their second season in Seattle, the Rainiers finished first in the Oceanic Conference with 100 wins, pacing the Bronx Highlanders by 7 games. Notable this season was the league-best pitching staff (3.30 ERA), led by Virgil Trucks (2.08) in his last Retro season, a solid campaign from Pete Reiser (0.977 OPS), and a better road (0.675) than home (0.623) record. After taking the first two games in the Conference playoffs, Seattle struggled the rest of the way, and dropped a nailbiter Game 7 by 1 run to the Bronx after blowing an early five-run lead. Despite that, a very fun season in the Retro.

SIoux FALLS Fighting Sioux

Manager: Jeff Chapman (Sally)

Age: 56 Occupation: NWS Meteorologist

The Season Story

Despite a team that hit decently, and fielded decently, and didn't have AWFUL pitching, it was a deep down-division finish (6th - even with a winning record) for the first time in several years. Probably a lack of power (a mere 49 HR) that kept the potential down. A couple of league leaders on the roster (Spence captured the batting title and Case swiped more than twice as many bases as the closest competitor). Mediocrity would seem to be the theme of 1941 as pitching fades further and the power outage continues.

SONOMA Crushers

Manager: Jack Kohn (Patti)

Age: 84 Occupation: Retired USAF Lt. Colonal

The Season Story

It was a season long struggle to be competitive in the improving division battle which saw three teams trying to compete with the suddenly potent Arkansas Travelers. The battle for the Crushers ended with a competitive 82-72 record which kept our TML record above .500. The Sonoma offense revolved around the leadoff work of SS Johnny Pesky who ended his retro career with a 210 hit (.315), 106 run season. Steady 1B Frank McCormick led the RBI crew with 99 and was the long ball leader with 18 home runs. A pleasant surprise was retiring catcher Ray Lamanno who socked 13 HRs while recording a slash line of 329/376/486. The pitching corps was led by Tiny Bonham's 12 CG and 13-7 record with Paul Derringer adding a 12-8, 3.16 record. Orval Grove was the bullpen leader with 14 saves in 47 appearances. With diminished pitching in 1941, the Crushers will be fighting to stay above .500.

SUMMER Cyclones

Manager: Ken Fusci (Rozanne)

Age: 74 Occupation: Retired – Part Time at Saratoga Casino

TML Champion x 2

The Season Story

Back-to-Back League Championships for the Retro '42 Summer Cyclones, as they win both Playoff Series as slight underdogs, being only the 4th best Team in the Playoffs and having lost both Regular Season Series to their opponents! But they came to life in the Post-Season when it counted most, fairly handily defeating Conference Champion AR in 5-games, and coming back from a 3-1 games deficit vs BX in the League Championship Series to win three straight in dominating fashion to become Champs once again. The Regular-Season and Post-Season star was, no surprise, Ted Williams who sported a fine .344 AVG, .512 OBP, league leading 32 HRs, all while being walked 179 times! He hit .500 in the Division Series, with 4 doubles, 3 HRs and 8 RBI. In the Championship Series, Williams shared MVP honors with the Scooter, Phil Rizzuto, as they both had 12 H, 2 doubles, 2 HRs and 11 & 10 RBI respectively. Pitching star of the Regular and Post-Season was Spud Chandler, who led the League with a Seasonal low 1.73 ERA, and won 3 of his 4 Post-Season starts, going 2-for-2 wins and complete games with a 1.50 ERA in the Championship Series. Unfortunately, SM does not project to be a playoff Contender going back to '41, but it was certainly a fun ride these past two Retro Seasons!

WALLA WALLA Wombats

Manager: Bryan Sakolsky

Age: 55 Occupation: Technology Sales Manager

The Season Story

Story? There is no story. When asked about the team's execution this season, the manager said "I am in favor of it." there were very few bright spots. In limited use, Paul Waner hit .342 with a .447 OBP. Bob Johnson was the only other impactful batter leading the team with 42 XBHs. Dick Newsome led the team with 8 wins to 23 loses, Sam Nahem was right behind with an 8-27 record. Carl Hubbell did manage the lone shutout for the season.

Stat Key

RC (Runs Created) = [(A times B) plus C], all divided by D, where

A = H + BB + HBP - CS - GIDP

B = TB + [.26 x (BB - IBB + HBP)]

C = .52 x (SH + SF + SB)

D = AB + BB + HBP + SH + SF

RC / 27 outs: runs created per 27 outs; in other words, the number of runs a player would create if he were to bat in all nine positions in the batting order.

QS (Quality Starts): the number of starts in which a pitcher pitches six (6) innings or more and gives up three (3) runs or fewer.

OAVG: the batting percentage against each pitcher.

Batting & Pitching Leaders: the following symbols were used to denote individual accomplishments that were record-breakers:

◆ - TML Record

◇ - Tied TML Record

Team Stats: an asterisk (*) preceding any stat indicates that the player or pitcher led his Association in that stat category; a caret (^) indicates that the player or pitcher tied for the lead in his Association in that stat category.
