The Major League

TML1993

by Jim Pertierra

Our 15th season is now complete. It was a season that saw an expansion team, it its 2nd season capture a Division title. It was a season that saw the Tarpin Ridge Rumblers, under the guidance of Richard Ross, work their way through some of the winningest teams in TML history en route to their well earned championship. Tarpin Ridge bested Mark Hetterich's Pensacola Stingray in a finale that ensured the winner of being a first timer.

All this and more will be dealt with in the upcoming pages.

This yearbook completes the double play of yearbooks that catches us up and will prove to be the last yearbook of its type in the TML.

Of course there will be yearbooks, but the type and texture of the books will now change due to one of the more significant ventures in TML history.

As you all remember, we always numbered our seasons with reference to the beginnings of the league back in TML 1 in 1980. This past year (1994) we finally journeyed forward into the past. A group of 32 current/past/first time TMLers placed a different stake in the group in TML history and started playing 1961. This group will continue playing seasons until we get up to 1978.

1961 was such a great success (both in terms of stats and in term of fun) that many of the same group will draft new TML teams starting in 1948 and continue playing until they reach 1960. When that happens TML will bridge the Major League Seasons from 1948 until 1974 and then from 1979 until 2007. If I'm not mistaken, in 13 years that means we will have a TML history of at least 56 seasons. Actually the number will be 68 seasons as we will do the same with 1936 starting in 1996. We are therefore referring to the season played when we refer to a TML1993 or TML1961. Let's eliminate a little guess work.

Our yearbooks will concentrate on the teams that played those years. We will issue a record book annually in order to give all the cumulative milestones. Thus, the yearbooks will be smaller, but, collectively, there will be more. The league is thriving and the credit, as always, is due to your spirit and drive.

As always, there were some great achievements in TML1993. For the first time in history, an entire starting rotation (Buffalo's) was voted to the All Star team and they deserved to be there. Witness the closest batting title in TML history between Tony Gwynn and John Olerud. How about the three way tie in the homerun race in the National.

Albert Belle of Pensacola dominated the American Association like few players ever have. Just look at those numbers and consider how close he came to the triple crown. Andres The Giant Galarraga was really the big man in the batting title race. Kevin Appier had a big time campaign to lead the pitchers and he beat out some eye popping numbers from Randy Johnson to do it.

The American Association expansion managers certainly did their homework as 3 out of 4 finished above the .500 mark highlighted by Jeff Chapman's surprise division title with Rocky Mountain.

All those and more will be before your eyes as you move through this book.

Speaking for myself, I am extremely pleased with the course of the TML as a whole. We have a great group of managers and, even as we lose good people, we gain good people. Next year it looks like the rookie drafts will not only be held in separate locations, but will be held months apart. That will be a first.

That does not mean that the league is splintering, it just means that we continue to listen. Admittedly we do not vote on as many things, but I have not had a rule proposal submitted in a couple years.

Just before closing, here is my annual listing of the managers that have been managing for all 15 years since the beginning of The Major League in TML1979:
Mike Landin, John Gatto, Carl Carpenter, Mike Mayko, Doug Zuchowski, Frank Lentine, Jim Schembari, Art Albanese, Dave Pittner, Rocky Hall, Rich Goldberg, Larry Alber and Jim Pertierra continues as the Beaver.

And those Managers who have been around for 10 or more years:
Joe Steinmetz (13), Mark Hetterich (14), Larry Rumsey (11), Bob Weisman (12), Bruce Clark (12), Dennis Gage (11), Eric Rogers (10).

I have never been around a better bunch of people. I thank your for you help, patience, advice and, most of all your friendship. All in all it looks as if our path is clear, our legs are strong, so let's continue further up the road! My thanks to my partner Mike Landin for continuing to let me have all the fun! Thanks buddy!

'Til next year.....

Summary: The Nationals scraped for a pair of runs (using all 4 hits) in each the 1st and 6th innings, which was enough, despite a faltering bullpen. A 2-run homer by Thomas put the Americans on the board. Harvey squelched an 8th inning American rally (leaving the tying run on 3rd) and Wetteland pitched the 9th for the save.

THE AMERICAN GAME

By Hank Pedicone

It was quite a season, and a full one at that.... Something we can't say about those other guys (you know, the ones who can't get by on a $1.5 mil. average salary, and find it so hard to figure out how to divvy up nearly $2 BILLION.....It boggles the mind). Life in the American Association was interesting, if nothing else. There were some fine performances by expansion teams, and painful reversals of fortune for some of last year's better teams (one of which I know all too well). Stellar individual performances abounded, including Albert Belle's incredible 183 RBI's, as well as six no-hitters turned in by various Association pitchers. Now, a little retrospective on divisional play:

GHERIG: The race in the Gehrig was proof that expansion doesn't have to be painful for the expansion teams, as the division title was claimed by Rocky Mountain in only the second year of the franchise's existence. It was a tight race, but they managed to hold on for a slim one game margin over charter franchise Alberta. A team batting average of .289 was second only to American champion Pensacola, as the Chinooks took the division with the lowest winning percentage of any division winner.... But it still counts. Greg Vaughn paced Rocky Mountain with 35 HR's and 109 RBI's, and Kevin Brown notched 21 wins, including 4 shutouts. Alberta's late season drive was fueled by Chili Davis' 29 HR's and 100+ RBI efforts from Darren Daulton and Kirby Puckett. Greg Maddux had (ho-hum) 20 wins and a 3.15 ERA, and Mark Leiter put in yeoman work with 14 wins in his 243 innings. Cheticamp also came close, at 3 games back, enjoying power surges from Frank Thomas (41 HR's) and Jay Buhner (31), and a no-hitter by Omar Olivares against Brooklyn in Series 11. Oklahoma saw some fine individual performances from Tino Martinez, who went deep 24 times, and John Wetteland (35 saves), but the Supercells fell ten games short of the .500 mark. Rockford and Zagazig succeeded mainly in qualifying for the lottery in the rookie draft, but did have some positive notes. Barry Bonds cranked 44 HR's and drove in 144 runs for the Radar, and Marquis stole 62 bases for the last place Zilches. Small consolation, I'm sure..... but I know the feeling.

ROBINSON: No getting around it, it was a tough year in the Robinson. Whereas in TML XIV (TML 1993, or 92, or whatever last year will be called) three teams had over 100 wins, the Flames scorched the rest of the division this time around. Colonie's pitching was dominant, as its team ERA of 3.24 was second only to that team from Pensacola, and its 1171 strikeouts were second to none. Ron Gant's 34 HR's and Dave Justice's 37 didn't hurt. In one of the season's inspirational stories, Nolan Ryan went out in grand style, posting a 2.99 ERA, and capping off his regular season with a near perfect (2 walks) no-hitter at home vs. 'Skayuna. Thunder Bay put up the best fight in the division with its 90 wins, but still finished 12 games behind the Flames. John Olerud's .340 BA, 24 HR's and 111 RBI's, and 22 wins from Dennis Martinez were the highlights of the Lightning's season. Albany got 38 HR's out of Mickey Tettleton and 22 wins from Big Ben McDonald, but could only break even. Cooch's Clowns made a brief run, but fell victim to a shallow bench in the second half. Matt Williams provided some good times with his 34 HR's and 109 RBI's. The aforementioned and much lamented (at least in these parts) Squires came off a fine 101-win third place season and could come up with only 70 wins. The worst fielding in the American didn't help matters. The only bright spots were Fred McGriff's 50th HR, Lance Johnson's 50th SB and the surprising Frank Castillo's 20th win, all of which occurred against Thunder Bay in the season's final series. And they did get to see Ryan's no-no in person. Philadelphia somehow managed to finish behind the Squires, despite 21 HR's and 118 RBI's from Paul Molitor and 33 RBI's from Danny Tartabull.

WILLIAMS: Mordor put on a fine show, but just didn't have enough to stay with Los Angeles down the stretch, and finished 11 games behind the Spiders. Los Angeles had many solid, although not spectacular performances, including 20 HR's, 24 SB and a .324 BA from Tim Raines. Spider pitching was led by Kevin Appier's 23 wins and Jose Rijo's 21. They also had the two most lopsided one-hitters of the season, with Bruce Ruffin beating Cheticamp 15-0 in series 9, and Rijo enjoying just a bit of a cushion in a 25-0 trouncing over Wisconsin. Cal Eldred won 21 for Mordor, and Marauder hitting was paced by Eric Karros and Charlie Hayes, with 29 and 27 HR's, respectively. New Jersey put in a decent effort with its 84 wins, but finished 14 games back. Pinstriper fans were at least entertained by Rafael Palmeiro's 157 RBI's and 35 HR's, and Marquis Grissom's Association-leading 75 stolen bases. The team 4.45 ERA was the main culprit keeping New Jersey from being there at the end. Brooklyn just managed to stay over the .500 mark despite a team batting average (.246) near the bottom of the Association. While the Tip Tops had no 20 game winners, the staff ERA of 4.00, which was not bad this season, kept them from a losing record. Chicago enjoyed a late season surge of 16-12 down the stretch, which probably cost them a lottery pick, but gave them some hope for next season. Mark Grace posted a .339 BA and 103 RBI's to pace the Bruins. As for Wisconsin, well, they didn't have the worst record in the American, and participated in the draft lottery. Wisconsin's best offensive effort came from George Brett (.283 BA, 17 HR's and 84) in his farewell season. Next year will be better....right?

RUTH: This had to be the American's most frustrating division this season, at least for five teams. Sherlock finished with 94 wins, second to Walla Walla's 96. Sounds like a good race, right?..... Not!!! Pensacola blew them both away with 121 (!) wins. The Stingray's .309 team BA led the Association by a whopping 20 points, and 4 players drove in over 100 runs, led by Belle's 183, and Mike Piazza's 140. If that wasn't bad enough, Pensacola pitching led the American with a 3.21 ERA, featuring 23 wins and a stellar 2.65 ERA from Danny Darwin.... Kind of took your breath away.... Hard to believe they didn't take it all. Ken Griffey, Jr. went deep 52 times and drove in 151 runs for Sherlock in an outstanding season for the C's, but it was not enough to give them anything to do at playoff time except prepare for the draft.... (Been there, done that). The Wombats had no pitcher with more than 17 wins (Langston), but their overall 3.72 ERA got them to the playoffs. Coldwater and Michigan had moderately successful season, giving the Ruth five teams with .500+ records. Unfortunately West Falls held up the entire Association with its mere 41 wins. The Lakers had a modest, but balanced attack, with 8 players producing 10 or more HR's, led by Cecil Fielder's 20. The pitching was anchored by Pete Harnish's 3.21 ERA and 17 wins. The biggest offensive threat for the Terminators was Orestes Destrade, who drove in 109 runs, but there is much concern in Michigan about his future. A team ERA of 3.79 (3.39 for Jamie Moyer and 3.40 for Scott Sanderson) highlighted the Michigan effort. There was not much good news for the West Falls team, except that they will have a fresh start, as well as a new name next season. The Flyers did have one offensive standout in Andres Gallaraga, who hit .373 and belted 29 HR's. League officials hope that an infusion of talent (of sorts) from other teams, and a reasonably successful draft will help the franchise rebound from what must have been an excruciating year. It certainly can't get a whole lot worse. Time will tell.

So another season is history..... And anticipation is growing for another exciting campaign, at least in the TML, which plans a full slate of non-replacement baseball. Y'all come back, now... y'hear?

ALBANY Avalanche

Manager: Pat Barry (Elizabeth)

Age: 37 Occupation: Financial Analyst

The Season Story

The Avalanche rumbled to the .500 mark after two rebuilding campaigns. Ben McDonald (22-7) anchored the rotation. Robby Thompson, Mickey Tettleton and Mike Greenwell all enjoyed fine seasons as the Avalanche put together a slow, but effective offense. Alas, the front-line pitching was thin, straining a decent bullpen of Pedro Martinez, Ken Ryan and Jeff Russell. Moreover, the lack of quality defense at the key positions (cf & ss) led to too many "gift" hits. Hence, the 80-80 record.

ALBERTA Clippers

Manager: Mike Landin (Teri)

Age: 40 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

A strong surge in the final month of play left the Clippers just one game shy of the division title. Drawing Pensacola as a first round opponent meant an early exit out of the playoffs. Offensively, the team was led by Tony Phillips (136 Rs, 142 BBs). Daulton and Puckett each drove in 100+ runs. McGwire was a "force" in a limited role. Greg Maddux (20-10) was the "ace", with Smoltz and Leiter anchoring the staff. "Eck" was the "A.K.R.", but age was beginning to show (10 BSs). The youth movement is on in Alberta for '95 ...

1995 Team Name Change

Riverview River Rats

The Season Story

A so-so season. Steve Finley led the offense, banging out 210 Hs (.311) & 41 2Bs, while stealing 44 bases and scoring 101 Rs. The rest of the offense was erratic. Cangelosi stole 42 bases, but was caught 31 times! Embree and Swindell both won 15 games, but also lost 10+. Embree also posted a rare triple: 14 HBs, 13 WPs, 16 BKs. Steve "The Franchise" Avery had a terrible year, losing 19 games and posting a 4.64 ERA. Old man Reardon saved 31 games, but was also 0-10 with 10 BSs. Perhaps new management will turn this team around.

CHETICAMP Micmacs

Manager: Eric Rogers (Barbara)

Age: 36 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The 1994 Micmacs stumbled through a .500 season contending for the playoffs only through the mediocrity of the Gehrig Division. The offense performed as expected, led by Thomas and Bichette. However, weak pitching and defense did the Micmacs in too many times. Although they played like champs at times (beating Colonie 4 games to 1), they also played like chumps too much (losing the season series to Zagazig!). The 1995 Micmacs will score and give up runs by the truckload!

CHICAGO Bruins

Manager: John Gatto (Sylvia)

Age: 67 Occupation: Retired

The Season Story

Quite a disappointment. Hitters, except for Grace and Blauser, did not perform up to real life expectancies. Bruins pitching, except for Arocha, didn't even come close (i.e., Viola: TML 4.42, MLB 3.14). The above was generally responsible for Chicago's inability to reach .500, which was not an over estimation for this team and its solid lineup. It could only be due to poor management or poor DDB ratings. Only Dorsett bucked the trend!

COLONIE Flames

Manager: Mike Short (Monica)

Age: 40 Occupation: Public Sector Computer Specialist

The Season Story

A terrific year from a terrific team. Made it to Game 6 of the finals. Slower than molasses, but still set team record with 823 Rs. Despite that, pitching and defense prevailed (Randy Johnson: 22-10, 2.56, 331 Ks; Tom Candiotti: 19-6, 3.41). Nolan Ryan threw a no-hitter in his last regular season game and Colonie won all three of his playoff starts. Gant and Justice each scored and drove in 100+ runs. The DH's drove in 141 runs between them.

The Season Story

This season we started strong, but faded late in the year. We finished a little below pre-season expectations, but overall, it was a good season. Hopefully, next season will be an improvement over this one.

LOS ANGELES Spiders

Manager: Craig Christmann

Age: 38 Occupation: Geologist

The Season Story

It was the same old story for the Spiders: great pitching, good offense and defense. While the team was good enough to finish first in the Williams Division by 11 games, it was not good enough to get past Thunder Bay in the 1st round of the playoffs. Another lost opportunity for L.A.

The Season Story

Started out OK. We did pretty good, considering the starting pitching. We tried to take care of that during the draft. Also, it was a very tough division, considering that our record would have been ranked in other divisions. Looking forward to next season.

MORDOR Marauders

Manager: Phil Schumacher (Cindy)

Age: 28 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

Mordor, romping into their second season, qualified for the playoffs. This was mainly due to a strong pitching staff, anchored by Eldred, Key and Holmes. The Marauders also had a potent middle of the lineup with McRae (.476 SLG, 201 Hs), Hayes (45 2Bs, .501 SLG) and Karros (29 HRs, 107 RBIs). That combination prevented any extended losing streaks. The Marauders did not clinch a playoff spot until the final series. Although eliminated 4-2 by Colonie in the Quarter-Finals, Mordor kept all but the final game close.

NEW JERSEY Pinstripers

Manager: Rich Perrotti (Donna)

Age: 38ccupation: Sales

The Season Story

New Jersey was a team in transition, striding down the middle of the road; able to beat the lesser teams most often, as well as losing to the better clubs. The pitching staff used every imaginable trick to get through the season, led by 16-game winners Jim Abbott and Greg W. Harris. Youngsters Bobby Jones and Scott Sanders showed promise. Offensively, tremendous speed led the attack. Kenny Lofton led the league in SBs, while batting .349. Vina stole 40 of 45. This made life wonderful for Palmiero (157 RBIs) and Carter (110 RBIs).

OKLAHOMA Supercells

Manager: Mark Plate

Age: 29 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

Oklahoma had a solid offensive team, which kept them in playoff contention until late in the season. However, the relief pitching, with the exception of closer John Wetteland, ultimately doomed the Supercells to a 4th place finish and another losing season. Wetteland was the team MVP, with 35 SVs (only 2 BSs) and a 1.08 ERA.

Age: 47 Occupation: Instructional Designer

The Season Story

The Stingray's best season ever! Many offensive TML records were set ... team avg (.309), runs scored (1111) and RBIs (1061). Albert "Don't Call Me Joey" Belle (183 RBIs) and Dykstra (171 Rs) both broke individual TML records. Belle had a tremendous year: .356 (2nd), 162 Rs (2nd), 226 Hs (1st), 51 HRs (2nd), 183 RBIs (1st*), 428 TBs (1st), .675 SLG (1st), .426 OBP (5th) and 183 RCs (1st). The pitching wasn't too bad either. The Stingray led the league in ERA at 3.21. Overall, the team set an American Association record with 121 Ws and only 39 Ls.

The Season Story

It was a rebuilding year and our record shows that. Bonds had a great year, considering the supporting cast. Our pitching was awful, but we did come on strong at the end. I believe this is a good platform on which the future will be built. I know it sounds a lot like Chicago Cubs Management talking, but I only hope to say "Rebuilding Year" once in ten years!!

ROCKY MOUNTAIN Chinooks

Manager: Jeff Chapman (Sally)

Age: 28 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

In just the second year as a TML franchise, the Chinooks surprised the world, unexpectedly capturing the Gehrig Division Crown. Thank goodness for a weak division ... which offset no power and a weak bullpen. Kevin Brown became the first 20-game winner in Chinook history. High point: 4-1 series win against Walla Walla in Series 4. Low point: 1-4 series loss against Walla Walla in the playoffs.

The Season Story

A much better than expected season, which came down to a head-to-head battle with Walla Walla for 2nd place, losing out by only one game. (It seemed as though Pensacola had clinched the division back in Spring Training!) Ken Griffey, Jr. put together a super year, belting 52 HRs & 45 2Bs, driving in 151 and scoring 131. In a year without Albert Belle or Barry Bonds, he would be Player of the Year. Juan Gonzalez added 113 RBIs and 41 HRs. In pitching, Drabek, Belcher and Finley each had 15+ wins, while Montgomery was the bullpen "ace", with 34 SVs and 42 RPs.

'SKAYUNA Squires

Manager: Hank Pedicone (Eileen)

Age: 44 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

The bubble burst for the Squires in a big way this year, falling from a Squire record of 101 victories in 1993, to a mere 70 this season. David Weathers set the tone for the pitching staff, with 43 (!) WPs. Fred McGriff's 50 HRs, Lance Johnson's 50 SBs and Frank Castillo's 20 Ws eased the pain a little. Wait till next year!

The Season Story

Immediately following yet another 110+ loss season, Manager Clayman resigned and was overheard saying, "This team sucks!", as he stormed out of the clubhouse. For the first time in recent memory the press was speechless, as they knew he was right! Andres Galarraga was the lone shining jewel on the team, winning the American Associating batting title, with a .373 average. It is unknown how he compiled 112 RBIs. The pitching was the worse ever in American Association history, with a 6.05 ERA, allowing 1078 Rs and serving up 190 HRs. Pugh and Browning both lost 21 games, while putting up 7+ ERAs. Wait till next millennium!

WISCONSIN Phoenix

Manager: Dave Schumacher

Age: 22 Occupation: Systems Analyst

The Season Story

Once again, only one word can describe the feelings of those associated with the Phoenix: disappointment. Although expectations weren't high for this team, a second straight 100+ loss season was frustrating. With an offense that couldn't manage to score the big runs, a defense that had glaring holes, a bullpen that looked like it belonged in AA and a starting staff that is too young, all the Phoenix could say is, "We can only get better!"

ZAGAZIG Zilches

Manager: Bob Weisman

Age: 34 Occupation: Univ. Prof./Meteorology

1995 Team Name Change

St. Cloud Power Loons

The Season Story

The last time I thought Zagazig would contend, they finished last. Five years later ... nothing new! The offense, notably Bagwell and Salmon, was not as potent as predicted. The starting pitching, as expected, was awful. The relief pitching was spottier the predicted. The result ... another last place finish. Ironically, Zagazig was 34-36 within the division, but stunk (31-59) elsewhere. Bagwell should be fun next year, but the rest of the team should be worse. Not much light at the end of the tunnel right now.

Stat Key

Below you will find some explanations on a few stat categories:

RC: runs created ($RC = [A \text{ times } B] \text{ divided by } C$), where,

$$A = H + W + HBP - CS - GDP$$

$$B = TB + .26 \times (TBB - IBB + HBP) + .52 \times (SH + SF + SB)$$

$$C = AB + TBB + HBP + SH + SF$$

RC / 27 outs: runs created per 27 outs; in other words, the number of runs a player would create if he were to bat in all nine positions in the batting order.

QS: quality starts; the number of starts in which a pitcher pitches six (6) innings or more and gives up three (3) runs or less.

OAVG: the batting percentage against each pitcher.

Batting & Pitching Leaders: the following symbols were used to denote individual accomplishments that were record-breakers:

★ - TML Record

⚾ - American Association Record

⚾ - National Association Record

□ - Tied any of the above records

Team Stats: an asterisk (*) preceding any stat indicates that the player or pitcher led his Association in that stat category; a dot (•) indicates that the player or pitcher tied for the lead in his Association in that stat category.

The Season Story

Pleasant surprise for this team to sneak by Rocky and Dave's power house clubs to win the National Association Title. (Thank you, Gotham City!) McGriff had a great year with lots of help from Gant, Grissom and Offerman. The pitching was over its head, after Glavine's 22 Ws and Key's 21 Ws. Olson provided a dependable stopper. Bullpen was outstanding, giving up only 3 HRs. Winning the TML Championship over a very tough Pensacola club, was "icing on the cake" for a great season!
