The Major League – TML 2004 by Mike Landin

Our 26th season, the fourth with Diamond Mind, was another success. However, the year started on a sad note, with the passing of Joe Steinmetz, to which this book has been dedicated. In Joe's honor, the Robinson Division was renamed the "Steinmetz Division." The season saw Greg Maddux become the TML's first career 300-game winner, ending the season with 310 wins! As noted last year, Maddux and Roger Clemens lead most career pitching lists, but Barry Zito (2.92) barely took over the career ERA lead from Pedro (2.93). Barry Bonds upped his career homer total to 696 HRs and leads in career Runs Created with 2306. Mike Landin (2195) is closing in on the 2200 managerial career wins mark, and Mike Short (1971 Ws, .616) and his Crimea franchise (2481 Ws, .603) remain the most successful.

In keeping with tradition, here are the active members with at least 10 years of membership in the TML: Mike Landin(26), Mark Hetterich(23), Eric Rogers(20), Bryan Sakolsky(20), Bill Graham(18), Hank Pedicone(16), Mark Plate(15), Pat Barry(14), Jeff Chapman(13), Kevin Tyle(12), Mike (Mr.) Cempa (11) and Mike Dickinson (10). The TML says goodbye to good friends Mike Short(20), who resigned at the end of Crimea's post-season run, and to Dave Pittner, who resigned prior to the start of the season.. The TML welcomes Carl Schreck who took over the Phoenix franchise (now Carolina) and to Melissa D'Arcangelis who will take over the Crimea franchise this coming season.

The Year In Review

TML04 saw the Albany Avalanche and Manager Pat Barry facing the defending TML Champion Beverly Hillbillies and Manager Mike Dickinson in the TML World Series. Pat Barry's Avalanche buried the Hillbillies, sweeping them, to win the TML Championship. For Pat, it makes 3 perfect trips to the TML World Series and the Albany franchise is now 4 for 4 (16-2). Albany now joins Crimea and Walla Walla with four TML Titles. In the first round of the playoffs, Albany first took out Arkansas in an unexpected 4-0 sweep, pounding the Travelers' pitching (7.94 ERA). The Albany offense (.327, 7 HRs) made up for their shoddy fielding (8 E, 9 unearned runs). Crimea took out Chicago, but it took 6 games, with Crimea winning Game 6, 5-4, in 15 innings! Albany advanced to the World Series by outlasting Crimea in an exciting 7-game series! Albany's uncanny ability to beat up Crimea's bullpen "Ace" Jason Isringhausen, was the difference. Beverly disposed of Cheticamp in 5 games, while Traffic turned the tables on Rensselaer this year and also won in a quick 5 games, winning the final game 9-0. Beverly advanced to the World Series after getting by Traffic in a hard-fought 6-game series, that saw the final four games decided by 1 run. This was Albany's 9th straight post-season appearance, and as a wildcard entry, knocked off the three teams with 100+ wins on the way to their title! Congrats to all post-season managers, and especially to both Pat and Mike for an exciting season!

Steinmetz Division

The Albany Avalanche are the most perfect example of a "team" effort. They were in the middle of the pack in both team batting (.272) and team pitching (4.53). While the starting pitching was adequate, the bullpen was outstanding and the offense was explosive, scoring 963 Runs and socking a TML-leading 284 HR. Albany had 11 different players with 10+ HR and a record-tying 7 players with 20+ HR, including Manny Ramirez(TML-leading 54 HR, 389 TB, 164 RBI), Bobby Abreu(the 11th member of the "30-30 Club," 33 HR, 42 SB) and Jim Edmonds(34 HR). The Avalanche also set TML team batting records for walks (783) and strikeouts (1484). Albany moved into 2nd place in June and remained on the heels of Crimea the rest of the way. The Crimea River led the division from "gate-to-wire," posting a TML record-setting 11th season with 100+ victories! The River clobbered 267 HR and were only the 2nd team in TML history to have 3 players with 40+ HR (Adrian Beltre 48, Jim Thome 43, Lance Berkman 41). River "Ace" Randy Johnson(22-6, 3.05, TML-leading 287 K, .208 OAvG) was stellar, including his first TML no-hitter at Cheticamp. The 'Skayuna Squires also had a TML-tying 11 different players with 11+ HR, lead by Albert Pujols(.330, 33 HR), but that could not offset the shaky pitching. Squire "Ace" Jason Schmidt(22-7, TML-leading 2.71) was voted "Pitcher of the Year," edging out Johnson (91-80). Billy Wagner(1.41) was 28-2 in save opportunities. The Burleigh Blue Jays, reeling from the pre-season loss of beloved GM/Manager Joe Steinmetz, cruised to a .500 season. Paul Konerko(.301, 42 HR) put up big numbers for the Jays. Keith Foulke(1.43) was 36-3 in save opportunities. The Mudville Nine managed to avoid the cellar, with some decent front-line starting pitchers. Their bullpen proved to be unreliable. The Valparaiso Drench remained in the basement, but won 16 more games this season despite, losing 100 games for the 2nd consecutive year. Todd Helton(.419 OBP, 28 HR) continued to be the team leader on offense.

Gatto Division

The Beverly Hillbillies won the division "gate-to-wire" for the 2nd consecutive season, winning by 20 games! The Hillbillies became only the 10th team in TML history (and 2nd time for franchise) to score over 1000 runs (1024). Beverly's potent offense was led by "Player of the Year" J.D. Drew(.326, 40 HR, TML-leading 140 BB & 170 RC). In 2nd place in the "Player of the Year" balloting was teammate Travis Hafner(.362, 41 HR, 154 RC). This "1-2" punch was supported by a cast of .300 hitters! Hillbilly "Ace" Rich Harden(21-2, 3.49) was tough to beat and complimented fellow 21-game winner Mark Buehrle(21-8, 3.61). "Fireman of the Year" Brad Lidge(43 SV, 49 RP) closed out many victories. The Rensselaer Strikers fought off the competition to earn the Gatto Wildcard. Miguel Tejada(.290, 33 HR) provided the offensive spark. Relief "Ace" Mariano Rivera(1.46, 34 SV, 45 RP) was his dominant old self. The Glenmont Haymakers could not shake off their losing "Summer Stretch" and just missed the playoffs. Haymaker Carlos Zambrano(15-8, 3.28) tossed the first TML no-hitter in nearly 2 years, beating Nashua. Barry Zito(14-12, 3.85) gave Glenmont a nice "1-2" starting corps. Justin Morneau(.306, 34 HR) was the team offensive leader, but did not receive much supporting help. The Mansion Hill Mudslingers managed to post a .500 record, despite many yelling "who's in charge around here!" Maybe it was relief "Ace" Francisco "K-Rod" Rodriguez(1.28, 38 SV), who was 38-1 in save opportunities, notching 79 K in just 49.1 IP! Rafael Palmiero(.297, 16 HR) added to his "juiced" TML career numbers. The Nashua Voleurs were kept in many games by their bullpen, led by Armando Benitez(1.07, 27 SV). Jason Kendall(.333) and Carlos Lee(.294, 28 HR) led the offense. The Ghostwood Pine Weasels managed to avoid 100 losses, but still finished dead last for the 4th time in the past 5 seasons. Mike Sweeney(.341, 35 HR) was their star.

Ruth Division

The most balanced team in the TML was the Arkansas Travelers, 1st in batting (.304, 904 R, 144 HR) and 1st in pitching (3.65, 41 SV). Mark Loretta(.343, 137 RC, TML-leading 58 2B), Melvin Mora(.374, 128 RC), Carlos Guillen(.340, 111 RC) and Randy Winn(.296, 103 RC) led this powerful offense. Dontrelle Willis(22-5, 3.14) was their "Ace" starter and Juan Rincon(2.14, 31 SV) was the "stopper." Brandon Webb(15-7, 3.11) and Jake Peavy(16-5) completed a trio of strong starters. Arkansas built up a 12-game lead by the start of the summer and held that lead to the end. The Chicago Bobcats won the wildcard berth by 1 game, thanks to a balanced offense, led by Garret Anderson(.338, 23 HR), and a balanced pitching staff, anchored by TML great Roger Clemens(14-8, 3.79). The deep and strong bullpen of B.J. Ryan (1.47, 19 SV), Akinori Otsuka(11-3, 3.31, 14 SV) and Chad Cordero(8-3, 3.98, 6 SV) proved to be the difference. The Hialeah Thoroughbreds earned the label, "the best team to not make the playoffs." They were led by the TML batting champ, Ichiro Suzuki, who's .390 AVG was the 3rd highest in TML history and his 276 hits is a new TML Record! Torii Hunter (.302, 40 2B, 24 HR) and Hank Blalock(29 HR, 102 RBI) provided additional offensive support. Livan Hernandez(18-8, 4.10) surfaced as the T-Bred "Ace" starter. The Danny Way Diamonds saw Carolos Beltran, despite a .250 AVG, still bang out 100 extra base hits (53 2B, 10 3B, 37 HR) and he had 119 RC. The Diamonds had 9 batters with 12+ HR. Other than Roy Oswalt(18-8, 3.89) and Tim Hudson(11-9, 3.55), the rest of the staff was shaky at best. The Phoenix Mystique lost 100+ games for the 2nd consecutive season, mainly due to weak pitching (5.32 ERA). Jack Wilson(.301, 30-14-17, 103 RC) had the hot bat all season. The Walla Walla Wombats lost 106 games, the first time they had ever lost more than 98. Rookie David Wright(.307, 14 HR) supported veterans Andruw Jones(31 HR) and Sammy Sosa(35 HR), but the pitching was dreadful (5.40 ERA).

Gehrig Division

The Traffic Dodgers won the Gehrig for the 4th time in the past 5 seasons, this time slowly pulling away from the rest of the division, winning by 15 games. Vladimir Guerrero(.338, 44 2B, 39 HR, 133 RC) provided the "big lumber" and had a nice supporting cast. Matt Clement(16-8, 3.64) was the big winner on their staff, but it was more of a "team effort." Francisco Cordero(2.02, 30 SV) proved to be a capable "stopper." The Dodgers managed to go from last in team fielding last year, to first this year, with essentially the same players! The Cheticamp Micmacs put together a 26-10 finish to overtake the Oklahoma Supercells. Adam Dunn(41 HR, 127 RC) provided an offensive "spark" and natural "air conditioning," with a near TML record 221 whiffs! Jarret Wright(15-10, 3.51) and Odalis Perez(17-9, 3.67) made a nice "1-2" punch. Oklahoma had five different players with 100+ RC (David Ortiz 131, Mike Lowell 112, Craig Wilson 111, Julio Lugo 103, Lew Ford 100), the most of any TML team, but their pitching was suspect (5.23 ERA). Toxic Waste had their best season in 4 years, thanks to Mark Teixeira(.301, 39 HR, 125 RC), Carl Crawford(.306, TML-leading 23 3B & 54 SB) and pitching "Ace" Johan Santana(15-15, 3.64). The Brandon BigWeezMachine had their worst season in 7 years, due to "untimely hitting, sub par pitching and overindulgence." The pitching was horrible (5.44 ERA). The crowds still came out to see future TML Hall of Famers Barry Bonds(.310, 47 HR, 138 BB, 164 RC) and Greg Maddux(11-14, 5.13). The Rocky Mountain Chinooks sunk to the basement, due to a "power outage" (a TML low 125 HR). Gary Sheffield(.308, 35 HR, 126 RC) was their perennial team leader. Joe "gasoline can" Nathan saved 29 games, but also had a TML-leading 10 blown saves.

ALBANY Avalanche

Manager: Pat Barry (Elizabeth)

TML Champion

Age: 48 Occupation: Financial Analyst

The Season Story

Albany hit a lot of bumps in the road on the way to 95 wins. Somehow a second gear was found in the playoffs and the Avs eased past 3 100-game winners to secure their 3rd title. The offense this year carried the team. Manny Ramirez 54 HR 164 RBI, Bobby Abreu 33 HR 158 runs and Jim Edmonds 34 HR 121 RBIs carried a potent attack. In all the team hit 284 HRs with a .857 OPS. Starting pitching was problematic. Pedro endured an inconsistent year and Kenny Rogers arrived too late to help much. Only Freddy Garcia 12-8, 3.41 ERA consistently impressed. The bullpen, however was outstanding and carried the day in the playoffs. Next year the team looks good. Will it be this lucky too?

ARKANSAS Travelers

Manager: Bill Jelks (Lynda)

Age: 62 Occupation: Retired Air Force Officer

The Season Story

The 2005 Travs had a large number of players with "career years" such as Melvin Mora, Carlos Guillen, Mark Loretta, Sean Casey and Aaron Rowand. As a result Arkansas enjoyed the second best record in the TML and best in Conference. Perhaps regular season success imbued the Travs with a measure of overconfidence as they were totaally overmatched and swept by an excellent Albany Avalanche team in the first round of the playoffs. General Manager Bill Jelks will have an off season of serious soul searching, that's for sure.

BEVERLY Hillbillies

Manager: Mike Dickinson (Andrea)

Age: 36 Occupation: Research Scientist

The Season Story

The Hillbillies enjoyed a storybook season, racking up 108 wins during the regular season. Several players enjoyed career seasons. Travis Hafner and J.D. Drew led a potent BV offensive attack and Mark Buehrle and Rich Harden along with the solid relief help of Brad Lidge led the pitching staff. Both Buehrle and Harden notched 20 wins and Lidge got 43 saves. Unfortunately it all crumbled in the World Series. The Hillbillies are in line for some "retuning" and hope to come back strong next year.

BRANDON BigWeezMachine

Manager: Kyle Weisser (Lisa)

Age: 35 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The inaugural season for the BigWeezMachine brought about a few surprises but was generally fraught with untimely hitting, subpar pitching and overindulgence. The most telling stat of our losing season was the 14.35 runners per game allowed by the pitching staff. This brought about many arduous innings of suffering in the field which wore down the offensive attack.. A mid season surge did provide some optimism for the clubhouse, but a rough August and September quickly washed away any hope for a post season birth. As for overindulgence, Adam Kennedy, Dustin Mohr and Kaz Ishii have all been suspended for the first week next year for costing the team a 4th round draft pick. To improve next year may take a miracle, but a few trades and a few evolving bright spots in the rotation may make for a more competitive ball club.

BURLEIGH Blue Jays

Manager: Jim Pertierra (Janet)

Age: 56 Occupation: Supervisor - Verizon

The Season Story

The last thing I wanted to do was to take my old team over and certainly never under the tragic circumstances that I did. When Joe Steinmetz passed away, I called Mike and told him that I would be glad to take the team over once again and I am glad I did. Not much to report on as it was a totally blah season from a team that is in major rebuilding mode. Thanks to Mike Landin for his firm leadership and long time friendship. Good luck to Mike Short and thanks for all he has done for all of us over the past 20 years. We miss Diamond Dreams Mike and it was NEVER the same after you stepped away from it. Don't forget where we are.

CHETICAMP Micmacs

Manager: Eric Rogers (Barbara)

Age: 47 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The 2005 Micmacs were nearly a carbon copy of the 2004 edition; languishing under .500 through all summer, they awakened in September-October with a 12 game winning streak which brought them over .500. Unlike 2004, this was just enough to capture second place in the weak Gehrig Division and sneak into the playoffs. The key difference from 2004 was career years from team MVP Jaret Wright (17-9) and Odalis Perez (15-10). The offense, led by Dunn (41 HR) was respectable, especially against righties. As expected, the Micmacs fell in 5 games to Beverly in the playoffs but it was still a fun season.

CRIMEA River

Manager: Mike Short (Monica)

Age: 50 Occupation: Webmaster

The Season Story

Lance Berkman and Adrian Beltre led a very good offense and Randy Johnson and Jason Isringhausen (Closer du jour) led a very good pitching staff as Crimea scraped out another division win. While last year's team was dead if behind after seven innings (1 win), this one was never out of it, posting 15 late comebacks and one more in the playoffs. This team had a deep bullpen and an excellent bench (Werth, Valent, Ojeda, Pratt, Garciparra). The race with Albany was exciting as the River bolted to an big early lead, and saw it dwindle to just one game at the end of September. A late surge left the River comfortably in front. Crimea captured the first round of the playoffs with a 15 inning come-from-behind win, but fell to Albany in 7 games, as the Avalanche continued their season-long propensity to bury Isringhausen. Frustration over playoff losses led to the firing of GM and Manager Mike Short. Those 20 years went fast! Thanks for the good times and the memories!

DANNY WAY Diamonds

Manager: Mark Hetterich (Connie)

Age: 58 Occupation: Instructional Designer

The Season Story

The Danny Way offense was the strength of the team. Carlos Beltran collected an incredible 100 xbase hits, 53 2bs, 10 3bs, and 37 hrs. He also scored 119 and knocked in 139 runs. Juan Rivera, Paul Loduca, and Tony Womack all hit over .300 on the season. The team ended up 11th in the league. The pitching staff was another story. Only Oswalt's 18-8 record and Hudson's 3.55, 11-9 record were respectable. Frasor, the stopper, saved 24. The rest of the team was pitiful and the team finished 18th in ERA. The Diamonds are clearly in transition and will only become competitive again when they can improve the pitching staff.

GHOSTWOOD Pine Weasels

Manager: Kevin Tyle

Age: 41 Occupation: Systems Administrator/Meteorologist

The Season Story

Another year, another last-place finish. Offense, pitching, and defense were all equally mediocre. Some decent play in September and October "saved" GW from the Lottery Draft. There were but few bright spots; Mike Sweeney, despite hobbled by injuries, was the offensive standout, with a .341 batting average, 35 HRs, and 104 RBI's in only 115 games. Jason Varitek and Doug Mirabelli provided lots of offense in the catcher's position, but Mirabelli seemed to see the ghost of Tim Wakefield every time he caught, leading to a plethora of passed balls. Miguel Cabrera was durable (played in all 160 games), but his offense was not as good as hoped. Pitching was mostly a disaster, with no regular starter under 4.50 ERA. Eric Gagne proved human in the closer's role (4 BS, ERA a less-than-stellar 2.69).

GLENMONT Haymakers

Manager: Dave Vollaro (Sandra)

Age: 42 Occupation: Research Programmer

The Season Story

The Haymakers finished a pedestrian 82-78 good for 3rd place in the Gatto. The middling results were due to the combination of punchless lineup, weak bullpen, and poor fielding. The hitting "attack" was led by Justin Morneau's 34 HR and Eric Byrnes 50 doubles. The starters held their own as team MVP Carlos Zambrano posted 15 wins, a 3.28 ERA (6th best in the league), 189 K's and a rare no-hitter vs. Nashua. However the bullpen was no relief, blowing 40% of its save chances leading to the firing of pitching coach Ricky "wild thing" Vaughn. The Haymakers committed 38 more miscues than last year. Coach Vollaro vowed to talk to the grounds crew about that!

HIALEAH Thoroughbreds

Manager: Doug Grahm (Donna)

Age: 44 Occupation: Computer Tech

The Season Story

A disappointing season to be sure in Hialeah. Pre-season predictions of challenging for a division title, but falling short of the playoffs is not what is expected here. Hitting came up short with only a few players like Ichiro and Torii Hunter providing much bang for the buck. The real disappointment was the pitching. Livan Hernandez finished with a good record, but no one else stepped up and, in the end, probably was the main reason this team seemed to underachieve.

MANSION HILL Mudslingers

Manager: Mike Cempa

Age: 41 Occupation: Meteorologist

2006 Team Name Change

Susquehanna Surge

The Season Story

Underachieving is the word that best describes the 2005 Mudslingers. The pitching certainly looked good on paper before the season began, but, as the saying goes, the game isn't played on paper (though an electronic series of 0s and 1s is pretty close), and the mediocrity of this team could be most attributed to the lackluster performance of the starters. The bats were good, with some players performing better than expected (steroids!), but a few position players let this team down, too. Management is taking a hard look at this team, and a major overhaul is possible.

MUDVILLE Nine

Manager: Bill Graham (Cathy)

Age: 55 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

Mudville was a somewhat improved team this year. Once again the team got off to a decent start but could not sustain the momentum. While the starting pitching was decent enough, the relief core left a lot to be desired. Dotel and Juan Cruz were decent enough, but the rest of the relievers seemed to be named Chuck and Duck. On bright spot was Gustavo Chacin, who pitched two complete games in his TML debut, the first one being a shutout. As for the overall state of the team, let's just say the rebuilding continues.

NASHUA Voleurs

Manager: Eric Kelsey

Age: 24 Occupation: Graduate Student/Meteorologist

The Season Story

Playing under new management this year, the Voleur bullpen shined in an otherwise morbid rebuilding year. Armando Benitez (1.07, 27 SVs) anchored a less than spectacular pitching staff of mixed veterans (Westbrook 4.34, 13-14; Mulder 4.66, 12-14; Lackey 5.63, 9-13) and youth (Grienke 4.96, 9-11; Lohse 5.77, 10-16). Nashua's bats did provide modest excitement, however, hitting .274 as a team with 78 stolen bases. Jason Kendall clubbed his way to a splendid season with 202 hits, 37 doubles, .333 BA and a new one-year deal with Nashua. Carlos Lee powered the team with 28 HR, 123 RBI, and 92 R. Adam LaRoche displayed his developing skills by hitting 24 HR in 92 G with a .285 BA and .547 SLG. All in all, if the youth of the club continues to progress as expected and the veterans regain some of their former magic, the upcoming season promises to be a vast improvement over the last couple of years.

OKLAHOMA Supercells

Manager: Mark Plate (Michelle)

Age: 40 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

It was another mediocre season for the Supercells as they hovered around the .500 mark all season and finished with a 79-81 record. In the weak Gehrig Division, this was enough to keep them in the playoff hunt all season, but in the end they finished 3 games back in the wild card race. The offense was not the problem, as the Supercells were 3rd in the league in runs scored. However, the pitching was a disaster...the bullpen looked weak all along, but the starting pitching which figured to be solid did not live up to expectations. Offensively, David Ortiz was the star of the team with 38 homers, 129 RBI's, and a .291 batting average. Craig Wilson, Mike Lowell, and Tino Martinez also each hit over 20 home runs. Mark Grudzielanek hit .332 as a part-time player, and Magglio Ordonez hit .320 with 11 homers in limited action. Curt Schilling was the best of the starting pitchers, with a 4.46 ERA and a 14-13 record. Troy Percival had 24 saves, but 5 blown saves and a 4.42 ERA.

2006 Team Name Change

Carolina Crawfish

The Season Story

This was a tumultuous season for a franchise searching for a foundation to build on. A management change was made early in the season to turn things around. The rookie manager shook things up by trading Brady Clark to get John Grabow and closer Danny Graves. Unfortunately, Graves fit in all too well in the Phoenix pitching staff by destroying late-inning leads with his 6.69 ERA. Nonetheless, there's plenty of buzz around the organization. The new manager's "small-ball" style is already taking hold with the team coming in 2nd in both stolen bases (156) and sacrifice hits (43). If Scott Podsednik can make contact a little more, his wheels (53 SB) may lead this team back to contention. A move to a pitcher-friendly ballpark in Raleigh, NC should compliment this new offensive style and mask the dismal pitching staff. With a new name and a new home, look for the Crawfish to come out of their shells and leave behind the Mystery of their losing ways!

RENSSELAER Strikers

Manager: Joe Nocera

Age: 31 Occupation: Scientific Programmer

The Season Story

The season pretty much ended up as expected for the Rensselaer Strikers. The offense was solid but lacked power and speed. Tejada (.290,33,120) and Pena (.270,28,96) were the offensive stars. The pitching lacked depth Carpenter (16-7,3.53) and Thomson (13-11,4.10) provided quality starting. Besides Rivera (11-6,34 Sv,1.46), who provided outstanding relief, the bullpen was shaky and frequently blew leads. Despite the weaknesses Rensselaer still made it to the post-season only to succumb to mighty Traffic who took vengeance for last season's defeat to RS in the playoffs. The future looks bright for RS. Carpenter, Roberts and Rivera give Rensselaer high expectations for next season.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN Chinooks

Manager: Jeff Chapman (Sally)

Age: 39 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

You never knew what to expect each time Rocky Mountain took the field, but you'd be far richer if you'd bet against them. They were "Poster Boys" for small ball, sending a paltry 125 souvenirs over the OF wall, stealing almost 200 bases, and grasping a solid third in fielding. Note for future reference: Team needs to hit better than .261 to make that work. GM Chapman was overheard muttering "Excellent!" as each HR meant a donation to charity. The finely balanced pitching staff shocked by taking the league strikeout mark, and dismayed by leading in walks allowed. Nathan made nitroglycerin look stable. Team MVP Sheffield again led the Chinooks in almost every offensive category, as well as in testifying before Congress where he vehemently denied being on the "juice". However, the great disparity between him and other players has opened an investigation to see if he can actually drain talent from those near him. The front office is excited to announce former FEMA director Mike Brown as Scouting Director for 2006.

'SKAYUNA Squires

Manager: Hank Pedicone (Eileen)

Age: 55 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

It was a frustrating season for the Squires who, despite "looking good on paper," spent most of the season below the .500 mark as the pitching staff gave up homers at an alarming rate. Only a late season surge against the contenders brought 'Skayuna back to a level of moderate respectability, giving the fans a glimpse of what might have been. The bright spots: Albert Pujols put in his usual solid numbers; Davis DeJesus showed a lot of promise in his rookie season; Jason Schmidt won 22 games in fine fashion, striking out 249 in 225.2 innings, with 3 shutouts along the way; and Billy Wagner was 28 of 30 in save opportunities. The future looks good (especially with these neat new glasses!)

TOXIC WASTE River Rats

Manager: Mike Landin

Age: 52 Occupation: Professor/Meteorologist

The Season Story

The Toxins finally moved out of the Gehrig basement, finishing in 4th place. They made a run at .500, but got slaughtered (8-22) during the Summer Stretch versus the Steinmetz Division. The other problem was that the only team in the division that the Toxins were able to beat was Rocky Mountain. Mark Teixeira was the team leader offensively, batting .301, with 39 HRs, 101 Runs & 113 RBI. Carl Crawford usually provided the "spark", batting .306 and stealing 54 bases. Rookies Nick Swisher (.319) and Adrian Gonzalez (.351) look promising. Rookie Mike Gonzalez (2.72, 28 SVs) settled the otherwise, shaky bullpen. Johan Santana was the "Ace", going 15-15 with a 3.64 ERA. Not bad for pitching half his games in Coors. The rest of the starting staff was ... horrendous! The outlook for 2006 is so bright that a bulk order of "sunglasses" was processed.

TRAFFIC Dodgers

Manager: Ken Fusci (Rozanne)

Age: 58 Occupation: Retired (NYSDOT)

The Season Story

A fun second year, as the Dodgers won the Gehrig Division again, and again set the Franchise record for Regular Season wins. They advanced to the Conference Finals before losing a hard fought 4-2 Series to the Hillbillies, one which featured 4 one-run games. Despite no "Aces" on the pitching staff, the Season went well, with starters Clement, Davis, Hermanson and Ohka all considerably bettering their real-life W-L records. The position players did OK for the most part, but almost all of the starting "Stars" under-achieved at the plate, as only left fielder White and catcher Olivo managed to top their real-life BAs - and the top three BAs went to key situational subs Offerman, Marrero and Burke. The most interesting Team statistic, though, was a "Worst" to "First" fielding pct. improvement - with pretty much the same fielders this year as last year! Looking forward to carding another competitive lineup next year, but many of the "Stars" are aging as noted by the probable release of long-time Franchise center fielder Grissom.

VALPARAISO Drench

Manager: Alan Srock

Age: 24 Occupation: Student/Meteorologist

The Season Story

The inaugural season for the Valparaiso Drench (formerly the Cortland Red Dragons) ended with a record of 60-100. Although Valpo barely missed the goal of less than 100 losses, the team still managed a 16 win improvement over the previous season. A lack of depth and injuries at most positions held this team back this year. Batting was led by Raul Ibanez with a .316 average and by Todd Helton with a .419 OBP, while the pitching staff was anchored by Ben Sheets, with a team high 14 wins and 269 strikeouts. Still in rebuilding mode, this team still has a long way to go, but hopefully this type of improvement can continue into next year!

WALLA WALLA Wombats

Manager: Bryan Sakolsky

Age: 38 Occupation: Financial Advisor

The Season Story

Two years removed from the TML title, the Wombats are in the midst of a painful rebuilding. Recording their worst season in history, the Wombats finished in the bottom two in the entire league in ERA, fielding % and runs scored. The lone bright spot was rookie 3b David Wright who in 283 at-bats hit .307/.344/.523 with 14 home runs. The pitching was not much better, the lone star was Kirk Rueter who was 12-12 and was the winning pitcher in 22% of all the teams wins. He also completed a mind-boggling 11 starts.

Stat Key

Below you will find some explanations on a few stat categories:

RC: runs created (RC = [A times B] divided by C), where,

$$A = H + W + HBP - CS - GDP$$

$$B = TB + .26 \times (TBB - IBB + HBP) + .52 \times (SH + SF + SB)$$

$$C = AB + TBB + HBP + SH + SF$$

RC / 27 outs: runs created per 27 outs; in other words, the number of runs a player would create if he were to bat in all nine positions in the batting order.

QS: quality starts; the number of starts in which a pitcher pitches six (6) innings or more and gives up three (3) runs or less.

OAVG: the batting percentage against each pitcher.

Batting & Pitching Leaders: the following symbols were used to denote individual accomplishments that were record-breakers:

u - TML Record

u - Tied TML Record

Team Stats: an asterisk (*) preceding any stat indicates that the player or pitcher led his Association in that stat category; a dot (.) indicates that the player or pitcher tied for the lead in his Association in that stat category.
