The Major League

TML 2005

By Mike Landin

Our 27th season, the fifth with Diamond Mind, was yet another success. Seven of the eight post season berths had been determined by the end of the Summer Stretch, with Hialeah taking the final spot. The post-season was a microcosm of the regular season, in that only the TML World Series went to a Game 7. The regular season saw Roger Clemens join Greg Maddux as the only TML career 300-game winners! Pedro Martinez (2.90) regained the career ERA lead from Barry Zito (2.98). Barry Bonds saw limited action, but did manage to sock his 700th career homer and still leads in career Runs Created with 2318. Ichiro Suzuki (.337) is the new career batting leader. Mike Landin (2303) is the leader in managerial career wins and the Crimea franchise (2556 Ws, .598) remains the most successful.

In keeping with tradition, here are the active members with at least 10 years of membership in the TML: Mike Landin(27), Mark Hetterich(24), Eric Rogers(22), Bryan Sakolsky(21), Bill Graham(19), Hank Pedicone(17), Mark Plate(16), Pat Barry(15), Jeff Chapman(14), Kevin Tyle(13), Mike (Mr.) Cempa (12) and Mike Dickinson (11). The TML says goodbye to both Eric Kelsey and Joe Pawlicki, who both resigned at the end of the season for personal reasons. The TML welcomes back Phil Schumacher(10), who will take over the Nashua franchise.

The Year In Review

TML05 saw the Albany Avalanche and Manager Pat Barry defending their TML Title against the Cinderella Toxic Waste River Rats and Manager Mike Landin in the TML World Series. In a post season that featured many short series, the TML World Series stretched out to a full 7 games, with the Toxins coming back from down 3 games to 1, to hold on for a 7-6 victory in Game 7, to win the TML Championship. For Pat (4 trips) and the Avalanche (5 trips), it was their first defeat ever in the TML World Series! For Mike, it is his 3rd TML Title and Toxic Waste now joins Albany and Crimea with four TML Titles. (The Walla Walla franchise has five TML Titles.) In the first round of the playoffs, Toxic Waste first took out Susquehanna in a rather easy 5 games, mostly with pitching (1.91 ERA). Traffic eliminated Rensselaer, also in 5 games and also with solid pitching (2.05). Albany had a tough time with Wild Card Hialeah, needing 6 games to advance. Albany's Wily Mo Pena (8 H, 8 RBI, 3 HR) and Javy Lopez (7 H, 9 RBI, 3 HR) were the difference. For the 2nd straight year, Arkansas bowed out quickly, this time to 'Skayuna. The big lumber of 'Skayuna (.317, 7 HR) took BP on the Arkansas hurlers (6.54). The Conference Finals were a shock! Toxic Waste swept Traffic, despite playing two tough 7-game series during the regular season. Albany likewise swept 'Skayuna, despite losing to them both times during the regular season! Congrats to all post-season managers for an exciting season!

Gehrig Division

The Toxic Waste River Rats had a dream season, overtaking Traffic in the final weeks of the season (going 33-9) to win the Gehrig, while posting a TML best 108 wins! The Toxins had a powerful offense, with three guys topping 30 HR (Morgan Ensberg 34, Jason Giambi 32, Mark Teixeira 31) and five different players with 100+ runs scored. On a staff of Johan Santana (18-8), Greg Maddux (18-6) and Mark Buehrle (12-6), it came as a total surprise that their "Ace" was "Pitcher of the Year" Kris Benson (20-3, 2.55)! Todd Jones (39 SV, 2 BS) was the "stopper" out of their deep bullpen. The Toxins also had the league's best fielding. A 15-17 Summer Stretch for the Traffic Dodgers ultimately led to a 2nd place finish, but they still finished with the league's second best record (107 W). Brian Giles (.337, 131 BB, .459 OBP) and Derek Jeter (.317, 212 H) provided constant offense. The Dodgers had five different players with 20+ HR. Despite not having an "Ace", the Dodgers had a solid front four in Matt Clement (17-5), Doug Davis (17-9), Tomo Ohka (13-4) and Pedro Astacio (12-5). Dustin Hermanson (28 SV, 9 BS, 4 L) was a "nail-biting" closer. The Oklahoma Supercells remained in 3rd place all season, but finished nearly 3 dozen games behind Traffic! Their big bat was David Ortiz (.293, 45 HR, 118 RBI, 150 RC). While the bullpen was adequate, only one starter, Noah Lowry (12-6) had a winning record. (Watch out for the Supercells in 2007!) The Rocky Mountain Chinooks held for 4th, behind the bat of Richie Sexson (.651 SLG, 45 2B, 53 HR, 151 RC) and the legs of Juan Pierre (65 SB). Francisco Liriano (12-7, 3.91) had a fine rookie season, leading the TML in Ks (275). The Cheticamp Micmacs finished 5th. Adam Dunn (42 HR, 114 BB) led the team with 118 RC, despite a low .239 avg. J.D. Houlton (5-20) was the league's only 20-game loser. The Brandon BigWeezMachine sunk to the basement, with their worst season since 1981. No Brandon pitcher won more than 7 games.

Steinmetz Division

The Albany Avalanche stayed a few games ahead of the 'Skayuna Squires all season, finally pulling away with a 30-12 divisional finish. Newcomer and TML HR Champ, Alex Rodriguez (.283, 54 HR, 139 RBI, 142 RC), lived up to all expectations, leading the Albany offense. Bobby Abreu (.277, 103 R, 118 RC) complimented A-Rod. The Avalanche led the TML in team pitching (3.23 ERA). The trio of Pedro Martinez (18-4, 2.49), Kenny Rogers (19-6) and Freddy Garcia (17-7) were hard to match. Al Reyes (20 SV, 1.78) and Scott Linebrink (15 SV, 1.76) shared closing duties. 'Skayuna led the TML in team batting (.304) and were 2nd in runs scored (957) and 1st in HR (219). The #1 power guy was "Player of the Year" Albert Pujols (.342, 42 2B, 47 HR), who led the TML in many categories, including 129 R, 221 H, 152 RBI, 408 TB and 169 RC. Derrek Lee (.299, 48 2B, 45 HR, 133 RC) nicely supported Pujols. The Squires had a potent 1-2 punch in starters Jason Schmidt (16-6) and Denny Bautista (15-5). Billy Wagner (27 SV, 2 BS, 1.58) was the Squires' "stopper." The Valparaiso Drench surprised everyone by being only 1 game behind Albany at the end of May, but still held on for a solid 3rd place finish. Todd Helton (137 RC) had a monster season, leading the TML in batting (.358), OBP (.460), doubles (56) and RC/27 (10.9). Brett Myers (19-12) just missed a 20-win season. The Crimea River settled into 4th place and remained there for most of the season. Lance Berkman (90 RC) and Grady Sizemore (90 RC) were the offensive stars, but the lack of depth in the pitching dept. proved to be too much. The Burleigh Blue Jays moved out of the cellar and finished in 5th. Manny Ramirez (.287, 50 HR, 121 RC) provided the big bat, and was supported by Paul Konerko (36 HR, 105 RC). John Smoltz (19-8, 2.88) had a fine season. The Mudville Nine finished last for the 2nd straight season. Coco Crisp (.284, 21 HR, 87 RC) and Josh Towers (14-9, 3.47) had fine seasons.

Ruth Division

Just like last year, the most balanced team in the TML was the Arkansas Travelers, 4th in batting and 3rd in pitching. They won their division gate-to-wire and were never pressured. Randy Winn (.307, 47 2B, 25 HR, 101 RC) was the offensive leader. Their success was the deep pitching staff, led by "Ace" Dontrelle Willis (20-8, 2.92). Jake Peavy (18-9, 3.50) and Brandon Webb (18-7, 3.61) made a formidable trio. The Hialeah Thoroughbreds found themselves in another dogfight with the Chicago Bobcats, but pulled away down the stretch. Ichiro Suzuki (.314, 219 H, 16 3B, 107 RC) and Cliff Floyd (.343, 28 HR, 105 RC) powered a solid offensive attack. Josh Beckett (16-9, 3.76) took on the role of "Ace", but John Patterson (12-3, 3.52) contributed nicely. Kyle Farnsworth (38 SV, 10 BS, 2.45) was a shaky closer. Chicago settled for 3rd place this year. Their offense was steady, without any real standouts. However, the veteran duo of Roger Clemens (17-6, 1.79) and Andy Pettitte (19-10, 2.92) kept them in the race. B.J. Ryan (5 W., 26 SV, 2 BS, 1.33) and Chad Cordero (10 W, 8 SV, 2.16) were a dynamite pair out of the pen. The Carolina Crawfish "floundered" between 4th & 5th place all season, finishing 4th due to a strong finish (43-29). Eric Chavez (42 2B, 27 HR, 26 SB, 100 RC) provided a clutch bat, despite hitting below .270. Rising star(fish?) Joe Mauer stole 36 bases. Chris Young (13-5, 2.91) emerged as their "Ace", while rookie Huston Street (34 SV, 3 BS, 2.54) became an effective "stopper". The Walla Walla Wombats stayed competitive into mid-season, before fading to 5th. David Wright (31 HR, 96 RC) led the offensive, with occasional help from Andruw Jones (43 HR, 83 RC). A.J. Burnett (14-7, 3.28) and Scott Elarton (15-9, 4.30) had fine seasons. The Danny Way Diamonds finished in 6th for the first time ever. Michael Young (.330, 44 2B, 111 R, 122 RC) and Chipper Jones (.327, 34 2B, 34 HR, 119 RC) were strong. The pitching was awful (5.48 ERA).

Gatto Division

The Rensselaer Strikers and the Susquehanna Surge were a two-team race, battling down to the wire. The Strikers won by a slim 2 games. Part-timer Sal Fasano (.379, 124 AB, 25 HR, 57 RBI, 52 RC) was awesome! Chris Carpenter (20-12, 3.60) was the "Ace", but Kevin Millwood (13-7, 3.25) also contributed. "Fireman of the Year" Mariano Rivera (12 W, 35 SV, 1.92) was his usual AKR self! The Surge were led by Jeff Kent (.314, 33 2B, 23 HR, 108 RC) and Geoff Jenkins (.290, 20 HR, 98 RC). Jon Garland (19-7, 2.37), Jeff Weaver (18-10, 3.00) and Roy Halladay (10-4, 2.59) made a fine trio. The Surge broke an original TML Record for fewest walks allowed (316). The Beverly Hillbillies had a rocky first two months (21-38) and then rallied for 3rd. Jason Bay (.302, 48 2B, 30 HR, 116 RBI, 131 RC), Travis Hafner (.285, 35 HR, 115 RC) and Jhonny Peralta (.312, 22 HR, 104 RC) sparked the offense. Brad Penny (11-12, 5.02) won the most games, but could hardly be called an "Ace." The Ghostwood Pine Weasels, Glenmont Haymakers and Nashua Voleurs took turns in the Gatto basement, before finishing in the order listed. Ghostwood was led by youngster Miguel Cabrera (.297, 41 2B, 26 HR, 105 RC). The starters were terrible, but Scott Shoenweiss, Matt Wise and Mike MacDougal combined for 31 SV and 49 RP. Glenmont had the weakest offense (.223, 582 R) in the TML, but a pitching staff that turned in a number of gems. The Haymakers had a team no-hitter in April and in June, Kerry Wood no-hit the Toxins! Glenmont was involved in nearly one-third of all the pitching gems in the TML this season! Nashua's stars were Carlos Lee (27 HR, 76 RC) and Derrick Turnbow (29 SV, 3 BS, 1.55).

ALBANY Avalanche

Manager: Pat Barry (Elizabeth)

Age: 49 Occupation: Financial Analyst

The Season Story

The 2006 edition of the Avalanche took its season to the last out of the 7th game of the World Series. Unfortunately, the last out was theirs and a fine Toxic Waste Squad prevailed. The Albany team was a well balanced lot, paced by the heroics of Alex Rodriguez and Bobby Abreu. Fine supporting stars like Jim Edmonds, Brad Wilkerson and Mark Ellis added to a potent attack. However, the strength of Albany this year was its pitching. All five starters achieved double digit win totals and Pedro Martinez' stellar season (18-4 2.49 ERA) turned buzz of injury into buzz of Pitcher of the Year. The bullpen featured two primary closers and each did his job (Al Reyes 4-5-20 1.78 ERA and Scott Linebrink 6-7-15 2.76 ERA). All in all it added up to 105 wins. Next year looks good as well with up ticks in hitting offsetting a pitching decline.

ARKANSAS Travelers

Manager: Bill Jelks (Lynda)

Age: 63 Occupation: Retired Air Force Officer

The Season Story

Another 100+ win season for the Travs and another first round exit from the TML playoffs! Lack of offensive potency once again is the culprit. Arkansas will be shopping some pitching for some oomph in the off-season. Dontrelle Willis, 20-8, 2.92, led a talented staff and Randy Winn hit .307 with over 100 runs scored AND knocked in while playing flawlessly in the field. Ah, but "hope springs eternal" as the Bard proclaimed.

BEVERLY Hillbillies

Manager: Mike Dickinson (Andrea)

Age: 37 Occupation: Research Scientist

The Season Story

"When defeat comes, accept it as a signal that your plans are not sound, rebuild those plans, and set sail once more toward your coveted goal. " --Napoleon Hill

Beverly tried to get younger by dealing offensive stalwarts Jason Giambi and Ken Griffey. While the team did get younger, offense was not a problem. We acquired no pitching and the pitching we had disappointed (forcing more deals). Still the future looks bright as BV maintains a solid offensive core, some young pitching potential, and draft picks. Next year we hope to "sail toward our coveted goal".

BRANDON BigWeezMachine

Manager: Kyle Weisser (Lisa)

Age: 36 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

Apparently the summer of 2006 was an abnormally cloudy one, as there were very few stars shining this season. Other than an admirable effort from Adam Kennedy and a surprise season of hitting from Joey Gathright, the BigWeezMachine was held severely in check. Averaging barely more than a baserunner an inning while striking out almost once an inning, the basepaths rarely needed raking between innings. Pitching was also a problem, allowing an average of 13.5 baserunners and 5 runs per game. Looking forward to 2007, a number 1 draft pick should allow the BigWeezMachine to position itself to fill some holes with a hopeful star of the future. While hitting should be much improved, pitching, especially the starters, will make winning games difficult at best. Looking forward to a top 5 draft pick in 2008.

BURLEIGH Blue Jays

Manager: Jim Pertierra (Janet)

Age: 57 Occupation: Manager - Verizon

The Season Story

Not much to say really. It was strictly a two man show with Manny being white hot early and Konerko hot late. Carlos Beltran was a MAJOR disappointment and I have never been one to complain about underperformance but his entire season made Mario Mendoza look powerful. It was a lot of fun regardless. An average team that was much better on the road. Should have pulled a Ruppert Mundy with them (Great American Novel - Phillip Roth 1974). League is great with a huge bow to Mike and to General Barry the Blogger.

CAROLINA Crawfish

Manager: Carl Schreck (Mary)

Age: 25 Occupation: Graduate Student/Meteorologist

The Season Story

After an inauspicious start, Carolina really turned it around in the second half of the season. The Crawfish clawed their way to within one game of .500 and 20 wins better than last season. Aaron Sele (7-4) of all people sparked the comeback when he replaced Jamey "Always Wrong" Wright (2-11) in the rotation. But the real star of the team was the lead-off man, Joe Mauer. Not only did Joe lead the team with his .373 OBP, but also the catcher racked up 36 stolen bases! Carolina's success was a true team effort with outstanding defense and a well-designed ballpark allowing the pitching staff to reach their full potential (and then some!). With everything starting to come together, the Crawfish are CLAMoring for their chance to take on the Gatto division next year!

CHETICAMP Micmacs

Manager: Eric Rogers (Barbara)

Age: 48 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

With the TML's worst infield defense and serious starting rotation deficiencies the 2006 Micmacs performed about as expected, finishing 68-92. D.J. Houlton (5-20) wins the Micmac Good Sport Award (and his unconditional release) by leading the team in starts and losses. The strong bullpen trio of Timlin, Fultz (2.16 ERA), and team MVP Riske (1.72 ERA, 24 SV) kept the Micmacs from losing 100 games. The offense, led by Dunn (41 HR) performed as well as last year's playoff team but could not overcome the pitching/defense problems.

CRIMEA River

Manager: Mel D'Arcangelis

Age: 23 Occupation: Video Editor for Fox-23 News

The Season Story

With the departure of long time manager Mike Short, the team had a somewhat disappointing year after last year's division win. After a few run-in's with overworked players and whatnot, Crimea is still in its transition period and getting used to the new management (and vice-versa). Not to worry though, Crimea is ready to make a comeback next season so watch out!

DANNY WAY Diamonds

Manager: Mark Hetterich (Connie)

Age: 59 Occupation: Instructional Designer

The Season Story

The Diamonds still have a potent offense, led by Michael Young with 213 hits and a .330 bavg. He scored 111 runs, hit 44 doubles, 19 homeruns, and knocked in 83 runs. Chipper Jones also hit .327 with 34 doubles and 34 homeruns. However, the Diamonds had the worst pitching staff in the league, giving up nearly 1000 runs and ended up with the next to worst league win-loss record for the league. Next season can only get better.

GHOSTWOOD Pine Weasels

Manager: Kevin Tyle

Age: 42 Occupation: Systems Administrator/Meteorologist

The Season Story

Ghostwood had an improvement in its "bottom line", and managed to escape the cellar, but all in all it was another long season on the "Pine" for the "Weasels". Some bright spots included Zach Duke's fine rookie campaign, Aaron Small's "15 minutes of fame", and Ryan Church nearly leading the league in triples despite playing only half the time! Miguel Cabrera and Mike Sweeney led the regulars on offense, but in general, once again most of the team did not perform as well as expected. Relief pitching was especially a problem, with several losses being snatched from the jaws of victory. GM Kevin Tyle vows a big housecleaning, with many players likely having played their last games as Pine Weasels.

GLENMONT Haymakers

Manager: Dave Vollaro (Sandra)

Age: 43 Occupation: Research Programmer

The Season Story

The Haymakers made little hay this season finishing a dismal 67-93. This was largely due to the anemic offense which was last in the league in batting. Marlon Byrd's .277 average and Justin Morneau 21HRs "powered" the Haymakers. At least the pitching was respectable, holding opponents to a league low .238. The silver lining to the dark cloud that was the 2006 season were the 2 no-hitter's thrown by GL pitchers. Rookie Dustin Nippert combined w/2 relievers to shut down CH 6-0. While the highlight of the season was the Herculean 10K 141pitch no-no by Kerry Wood against powerhouse TX, at Coors field! Ironically, Wood blew out his arm and will not be pitching in 2007!

HIALEAH Thoroughbreds

Manager: Doug Grahm (Donna)

Age: 45 Occupation: Computer Tech

The Season Story

A season that was expected to be a rebuilding year turned out to be surprising as Hialeah managed to squeak into the playoffs and take powerhouse Albany to six games. The offense was awful as only Floyd, Suzuki, and Renteria performed, but the pitching led by Patterson, Beckett, and Farnsworth kept opponents runs off the boards enough to keep Hialeah's string of winning seasons on the board. The pitching staff will again be counted on next season to keep this team in contention.

MUDVILLE Nine

Manager: Bill Graham (Cathy)

Age: 56 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

It was a very disappointing season as the Nine took a giant step backward on the road toward rebuilding. The expectation was that the team would finish near the .500 mark. Instead, it was the third worst team in the league. Still, there were bright spots. New arrival Joe Crede performed well as did Coco Crisp. Aaron Hill more than met expectations at 2B. Xavier Nady was a steady performer at 1B and the RF, as was Greg Zaun at C. The pitching leaves a lot to be desired and does not look to be much improved next season. Still, this was a team that could take 5 of 7 on the road against Oceanic Conference Champs, the Albany Avalanche. This team should improve someday. I just hope John Fogerty was wrong when he said "Someday Never Comes."

The Season Story

This season was supposed to be a "vast improvement over the last couple of years." but in reality, the Voleurs sunk into last place in the tough Gatto Division. Just as the year before, the bullpen was outstanding, led by Derrick Turnbow (1.55, 29 SV), and kept the team from losing 100 or more games. Jose Contreras (13-11, 3.58) was the only primary starter with a winning record. Nick Johnson, Jay Payton and Bernie Williams were fine in part-time roles, with Carlos Lee (39 2B, 27 HR) providing the only "power bat" in the day-to-day lineup. Manager Kelsey has left the team due to "personal reasons." In 2007, the team will move to the old Mordor Stadium near Mount Doom, and be sparked by the return of Phil Schumacher! The Marauders are back!

OKLAHOMA Supercells

Manager: Mark Plate (Michelle)

Age: 41 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

It was a disappointing season for the Supercells as they stumbled to a 73-87 record. The pitching was the biggest culprit as Al Leiter and Curt Schilling both had a poor year. Noah Lowry led the staff with a 12-6 record, but this was a bit misleading as well as his ERA was over 5. Bobby Jenks had 16 saves in 19 opportunities out of the bullpen. David Ortiz was the offensive star with 45 homers and a .605 slugging percentage. Jermaine Dye also had a solid season with 31 homers. Luis Gonzalez was a big disappointment, hitting below .200 on the season, and fellow left fielder Matt Holliday was not much better.

RENSSELAER Strikers

Manager: Joe Nocera

Age: 32 Occupation: Scientific Programmer

The Season Story

Expectations were not met in Rensselaer this season and management is not happy. The offense was strong statistically but frequently would go cold when needed the most. Fasano was the offensive star as he blasted 25 HRs in only 124 ABs. The starting pitching was erratic and the bullpen, besides Rivera (12-5, 1.92, 35 Sv), was horrendous. For the second straight year Rensselaer was knocked out of the playoffs by a mighty Traffic team whose timely hitting and outstanding starting pitching led them to an easy series win in 5 games. Expectations are high again for next year as young stars Sanchez and McCann are expected to emerge.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN Chinooks

Manager: Jeff Chapman (Sally)

Age: 40 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

A team of balance. Hot and cold. MVP Sexson hit 53 HR. Perez served up 53. Nathan untouchable the first half, almost useless the second. Small strides forward made for an "average" team at the plate and in the field. Again led the league in whiffs as a pitching staff (Liriano TML best 275 K), but near the top in walks and HR allowed (thanks Weez). After a 2nd worst road record (28-52), hopes are new virtual reality implants will make every park look like home. Resistance is futile! Perennial fan Rush Limbaugh went so far to say that the team was faking its performance for the sake of the draft. Sheffield, a distant second in power, and close to being overtaken by young upstart Howard, told Bonds to boost his HGH shipments.

'SKAYUNA Squires

Manager: Hank Pedicone (Eileen)

Age: 56 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

The Squires compensated for a mediocre pitching staff by pounding the ball this year, leading the TML in batting average with .304, HRs with 219, and finishing 2nd in runs scored (by 10). The hitting continued in the first round of the post-season as 'Skayuna dispatched Arkansas 4 games to 1. The hitting was shut down in the conference final, however, as the Squires fell under the Avalanche, wiped out in 4 games. Management is hoping for a productive off-season finding some pitching...anyone who can lift his arm will get a shot!

SUSQUEHANNA Surge

Manager: Mike Cempa

2007 Team Name Change

Age: 42 Occupation: Meteorologist

Maine Liners

The Season Story

The off-season brought much turmoil, including a move to a new city, yet, somehow, the team stayed focused and made the playoffs. The playoffs proved to be a disappointment, however, even though the pitching shined, the hitting was anemic. Garland lived up to his pre-season billing as one of the best pitchers in the league, but the surprise was Weaver, winning 18 games and posting an even 3.00 ERA. Kent, Jenkins and Gibbons supplied the bulk of the offense this year. Rumors of wild parties, witchcraft, and general debauchery by the management have the town elders worried, and re-thinking whether they made a mistake inviting the team to play in their stadium last year. The possibility exists that the Surge could be run out of town before next season begins.

TOXIC WASTE River Rats

Manager: Mike Landin (Teri)

TML Champion

Age: 53 Occupation: Professor/Meteorologist

The Season Story

It must have been the "10-year Itch" for the franchise, as they sailed to their 3rd TML Championship under Manager Biff Barnes and GM Mike Landin, having previously captured TML Titles in 1985 and 1996. This year's edition was especially sweet, after having lost 452 games the past 4 years, going from 68 wins last year to an astounding TML best 108 this year! The sudden emergence of a contender was due, in part, to some shrewd trades in the off season, acquiring Jason Giambi (DH) and Craig Counsell (to give TX the best fielding team in the league), Kris Benson, Flash Gordon, Bob Wickman and a couple of in-season trades, acquiring Jay Witasick (to solidify an already deep bullpen) and Mark Buerhle to anchor the starting rotation of Johan Santana (18-8, 3.68), Greg Maddux (18-6, 4.20) and to everyone's surprise, "Pitcher of the Year" Kris Benson (20-3, 2.55). Benson "ran out of gas" in the TML World Series, but dependable veteran and fan favorite, Maddux, rose to the occasion in Game 7. With the aid of the bullpen and 9th inning AKR work of Todd "The Freak" Jones, the Toxins scraped out a 7-6 victory over the classy and relentless defending TML Champs, Albany. Watch out for the Toxins in 2016!

TRAFFIC Dodgers

Manager: Ken Fusci (Rozanne)

Age: 59 Occupation: Retired (NYSDOT)

The Season Story

The Dodgers managed to set the Franchise record for Regular Season wins for the third straight year, but had to settle for second place in the Division, a game behind the surging Toxins. Special seasonal kudos go to veterans Brien Giles, the Dodgers on-base machine (.459), and Pedro Astacio, a February fifth-round draft pick-up who doubled his wins and halved his losses based on his MLB record (12-5 Dodger TML performance, vs 6-10 MLB stats). The Playoffs proved very fickle for the Dodgers, as they played terrific, errorless clutch ball vs the Strikers, but then played terribly, committing six errors with zero clutch hits and zero clutch pitching performances vs the Toxins in the Conference Final. So it's on to next year when the Dodgers should once again card a formidable batting lineup and a competitive, contending team despite the "Aceless" pitching staff.

VALPARAISO Drench

Manager: Alan Srock

Age: 25 Occupation: Graduate Student/Meteorologist

The Season Story

Valparaiso continued its trek northward in the standings by reaching .500 for the first time since 1998. The 20-win improvement over last season was sparked by an amazing season from Todd Helton, who led the TML in AVG, OBP, and doubles (and set team records for each as well). Troy Glaus showed off his power this season, leading the team with 39 home runs. Brett Myers anchored the starting rotation while earning 19 wins, and Michael Wuertz tied a team record by appearing in 67 games. Although somewhat hurting for starting pitching next year, some key in-season acquisitions should really strengthen the team for the future. Go Drench!

WALLA WALLA Wombats

Manager: Bryan Sakolsky

Age: 39 Occupation: Financial Advisor

The Season Story

2006 was to be another rebuilding year for the Wombats, but a weak division and an overachieving rotation WW held in until the last 3 series when after a couple of late season bullpen additions the team fell apart. The offense was brutal, but showed signs of a brilliant future with the emergence of David Wright and his 31 homeruns. While Andruw Jones managed to hit 43 homeruns, he fell WAY below expectations. While Scott Elarton led the staff with 15 wins, the real star was a 14-7 AJ Burnett who had a brilliant 3.28 ERA. Again the future looks bright with solid season put in by Clifford Lee and Danny Haren.

Stat Key

Below you will find some explanations on a few stat categories:

RC: runs created (RC = [A times B] divided by C), where,

$$A = H + W + HBP - CS - GDP$$

$$B = TB + .26 \times (TBB - IBB + HBP) + .52 \times (SH + SF + SB)$$

$$C = AB + TBB + HBP + SH + SF$$

RC / 27 outs: runs created per 27 outs; in other words, the number of runs a player would create if he were to bat in all nine positions in the batting order.

QS: quality starts; the number of starts in which a pitcher pitches six (6) innings or more and gives up three (3) runs or less.

OAVG: the batting percentage against each pitcher.

Batting & Pitching Leaders: the following symbols were used to denote individual accomplishments that were record-breakers:

Ⓢ - TML Record

☐ - Tied TML Record

Team Stats: an asterisk (*) preceding any stat indicates that the player or pitcher led his Association in that stat category; a dot (•) indicates that the player or pitcher tied for the lead in his Association in that stat category.
