The Major League

TML 2006

By Mike Landin

Our 28th season, the sixth with Diamond Mind, was another exciting season. As in TML2005, seven of the eight post season berths had been determined by the end of the Summer Stretch, with the Gehrig Wild Card coming down to a 3-way tie between Oklahoma, Traffic and Mordor. Oklahoma earned the final playoff berth. The post-season saw Beverly and Arkansas coast into the TML World Series, but Beverly was not to be stopped (12-1). The regular season saw Greg Maddux record his TML-leading 350th career victory and 52nd shutout, and was joined by the TML's only other 300-game winner, Roger Clemens (315) for the stretch run. Mariano Rivera (2.76) has accumulated enough IP to take over the career ERA lead from Pedro Martinez (2.97). Barry Bonds upped his TML career homer total to 714, and still leads in career Runs Created with 2373. Ichiro Suzuki (.335) remains the career batting leader. Mike Landin (2408) is the leader in managerial career wins and the Crimea franchise (2632 Ws, .594) remains the most successful.

In keeping with tradition, here are the active members with at least 10 years of membership in the TML: Mike Landin(28), Mark Hetterich(25), Eric Rogers(23), Bryan Sakolsky(22), Bill Graham(20), Hank Pedicone(18), Mark Plate(17), Pat Barry(16), Jeff Chapman(15), Kevin Tyle(14), Mike (Mr.) Cempa(13) and Mike Dickinson (12). It was with great pleasure that we welcome back long-time TMLer Bob Weisman(21), who will take over the successful Crimea franchise in 2008, moving the team to Lake Woebegone. Mordor remains leaderless.

The Year In Review

TML06 saw the Beverly Hillbillies and Manager Mike Dickinson with their 2nd TML Championship in the past four years! They defeated the tough Arkansas Travelers in a low-scoring sweep. The Hillbilly staff posted a 1.75 ERA against the potent Travelers' bats. For the second straight season, the post season was marked with mostly short series. Both Conference Finals were 4-0 sweeps. After Oklahoma surfaced out of the 3-way Gehrig tie, Beverly rolled over them in 5 games, as five different players tallied 4 or more RBI in the series. The Hillbillies next took out the defending TML Champs Toxic Waste in the Atmospheric Conference sweep. Beverly out-scored the Toxins and their TML leading offense 40-17. Reed Johnson (.556, 10-18, 8 RBI) led the attack. Toxic Waste had advanced by getting by Rensselaer in six, thanks in part to Garry Matthews (.520, 6 RBI). Arkansas finally got past Albany in 5 games, behind the timely bat of Carlos Guillen (.368, 6 RBI) and Chipper Jones (5 RBI). The Travs then swept past division rival Walla Walla, holding the Wombats under .200 team BA, while posting a miniscule team 1.42 ERA. Jones (.471, 6 RBI) remained hot. The Wombats had advanced on their pitching (team 1.90 ERA) by defeating Valparaiso 4 games to 1. Congrats to all post-season managers for an exciting season!

Gatto Division

The Beverly Hillbillies returned to the top of the Gatto, making this 4 division titles in the past 6 seasons! They boasted a nice balance of batting (2nd in the TML) and pitching (3rd). Travis Haftner (.323, 34 2B, 44 HR, 108 BB, 121 RBI, 152 RC) and Alex Rodriguez (.320, 36 HR, 115 RBI, 137 RC) led the offense. Run-a-way winner for "Pitcher of the Year" Roy Halladay (21-6, 2.01) also threw the only no-hitter of the season! Halladay was supported by four 13+ game winners on the starting staff. "Ace" closer Akinori Otsuka (35 SV, 42 RP, 2.51) slammed the door quite often. The Rensselaer Strikers finished 16 games behind Beverly, but finished 18 games ahead of the rest of the pack to earn the Gatto Wild Card. The Strikers big bats were Miguel Tejada (.324, 38 2B, 21 HR, 116 RC) and Brian McCann (.345, 24 HR, 105 RBI). "Ace" Chris Carpenter (18-12, 3.06) led all starters and Mariano Rivera (31 SV, 40 RP, 2.22) was his old self as the premier closer. The Ghostwood Pine Weasels and Glenmont Haymakers tied for 3rd. Ghostwood's Miguel Cabrera (.3350, 206 H, 50 2B, 22 HR, 126 RC) was the TML batting champ, edging out Traffic's Derek Jeter by .0002 points! Zach Duke (17-7, 3.54) had a fine year for Ghostwood. Despite Glenmont's fine trio of Scott Rolen (.301, 20 HR, 94 RC), Michael Cuddyer (.297, 39 HR, 123 RC) and Justin Morneau (.278, 29 HR, 106 RC), they still finished next to last in batting. Carlos Zambrano (16-13, 3.77) led the league in BB with 128, but had 209 K and an OAVG of only .203. Maine and Carolina tied for last. Maine had decent mid-pack pitching, led by Javier Vazquez (12-12, 4.95) and "Ace" closer Francisco Rodriguez (33 SV, 30 RP, 3.50). Carolina's Joe Mauer (.328, 15 HR, 36 SB, 106 RC) was a standout. Chris Young (13-11, 3.91) led all TML pitchers with a .202 OAVG. Huston Street (36 SV, 43 RP, 2.02) saved what he could.

Ruth Division

The Arkansas Travelers led the TML in wins (106), but still had to hold off the Walla Walla Wombats, who finished just 6 games out. The Travs boasted the best pitching (3.35) in the TML, led by "Ace" Chien-Ming Wang (20-6, 3.19). Aaron Harang (18-12, 3.84) and Brandon Webb (17-14, 3.96) anchored the staff. B.J. Ryan (36 SV, 38 RP, 0.85), was terrific out of the pen! The Travs also had a balanced offense (4th), sparked by Carlos Guillen (.307, 45 2B, 101 RC), Chipper Jones (.314, 22 HR, 91 RC) and Jason Bay (.258, 29 HR, 82 BB, 97 RC). Walla Walla claimed the Ruth Wild Card with the 2nd best pitching (3.55). The Wombats had six different pitchers with 10+ wins and another with 9 wins! Dan Haren (15-10, 3.18) was their wins leader. Ryan Dempster (33 SV, 34 RP, 2.50) and late in-season acquisition Jonathan Papelbon (12 SV, 0.50) were a solid duo out of the pen. Career TML HR leader Barry Bonds (714) also joined the Wombats for the pennant drive. The Hialeah Thoroughbreds finished a solid 3rd, with the best record of all teams that did not make the playoffs. Ichiro (.325, 230 H, 111 RC), Dan Uggla (.294, 26 HR, 103 RC) and Alfonso Soriano (.254, 32 HR, 92 RC) were the team leaders on offense. The T-Breds had six pitchers with 10+ wins, led by "Aces" Roy Oswalt (17-5, 2.98) and Jeff Francis (16-8, 3.29). The problem was the lack of an "Ace" closer. The resulting "Bullpen by Committee" saw nine different pitchers record saves. Fourth place finished Cheticamp had a strong pitching staff, but the lack of consistent offense hurt. "Ace" Jered Weaver (13-4, 2.68) had a fine season. The offense revolved around Frank Thomas (.261, 32 HR, 88 BB, 89 RC) and Adam Dunn (.212, 26 HR, 82 RC). Danny Way finished 5th in a re-building campaign. Chone Figgins (.286, 35 2B, 101 RC), Robinson Cano (.305, 41 2B) and Michael Young (.299, 40 2B, 89 RC) led the offense. John Maine (7-4, 2.75) was their only pitcher under 4.00 ERA. Chicago hit the basement. Kevin Youkilis (.281, 38 2B, 93 RC) was a standout.

Gehrig Division

The Toxic Waste River Rats had the TML's top offense (1025 R, 220 HR) and ran away with the division title. Jason Giambi (.308, .689, .489, 43 HR, 145 BB, 151 RC) had an incredible year, as one of five Toxins with 100+ RC (Nick Swisher, 133; Gary Matthews, 131; Carl Crawford, 109; Mark Teixeira, 101). Greg Maddux (22-7, 3.97) continued his awesome TML career and emerged as the staff "Ace" once again. Newcomer and "Fireman of the Year" J.J. Putz (45 SV, 46 RP, 0.91) was an efficient stopper. The Oklahoma Supercells, Traffic Dodgers and Mordor Marauders all tied for the Gehrig Wild Card. Oklahoma survived the end-of-season playoff to earn the Wild Card. The Supercells had the ultimate power duo in "Player of the Year" David Ortiz (.288, 64 HR, 149 RBI, 130 BB, 174 RC) and Jermaine Dye (.326, 53 HR, 166 RBI, 146 RC). "Ace" Curt Schilling (17-8, 3.60) had another fine season. The Dodgers were led by Vladimir Guerrero (.321, 47 RH, 133 RBI, 128 RC), who was supported by Derek Jeter (.335, 44 2B, 123 RC), Carlos Delgado (.289, 32 HR, 106 RC) and Aramis Ramirez (.272, 36 HR, 101 RC). The Dodgers only had one pitcher with double-digits wins and that was Kelvim Escobar (14-9, 4.95). Workhorse Francisco Cordero (8-10, 32 SV, 10 BS, 3.66) provided shaky relief. Rudderless Mordor had just enough offense and pitching to nearly make the post-season. The Rocky Mountain Chinooks finished 5th, with solid hitting, but weak pitching. Ryan Howard (.308, 59 HR, 149 RBI, 121 BB, 39 IW, 172 RC) had a near-MVP year. Juan Pierre led the TML in SB (55). Francisco Liriano (12-3, 3.63) was very effective in a limited role. Once the Brandon BigWheezMachine traded Papelbon and Bonds, they sunk farther into the Gehrig cellar. They finished last in batting and pitching. Somehow, Sidney Ponson (10-13, 6.56) won 10 games!

Steinmetz Division

The Valparaiso Drench easily captured their first division title since 1998. Their offensive star was Chase Utley (.279, 23 HR, 102 RC), but overall, the offense was very balanced from top to bottom. Raul Ibanez and Troy Glaus both blasted 30+ HR. Youngster Felix Hernandez (17-8, 3.57) emerged as the "Ace" of the staff. Bob Wickman (37 SV, 40 RP, 2.96) was an effective closer. The Albany Avalanche took the Steinmetz Wild Card, with a sub-.500 record! Albany's weakness was in their pitching (5.19), but they did have the bats in Garrett Atkins (.318, 54 2B, 22 HR, 127 RC), Bobby Abreu (.289, 40 2B, 43 SB, 113 BB, 116 RC) and Hanley Ramirez (.291, 49 2B, 52 SB, 108 RC). The Burleigh Blue Jays finished 3rd only 1 game behind Albany. Carlos Beltran (.284, 33 2B, 43 HR, 98 BB, 133 RC) had a terrific season. Mike Cameron (.299, 24 HR, 104 RC), Paul Konerko (.280, 25 HR, 95 RC) and part-timer Manny Ramirez (.300, 27 HR, 89 RC) added support. "Ace" John Smoltz (15-11, 3.79) led the TML in IP (242). Trevor Hoffman (32 SV, 35 RP, 2.67) provided solid relief. The Crimea River and 'Skayuna Squires tied for 4th, only 2 games behind Burleigh. The River's potent offense was led by Grady Sizemore (.318, 22 3B, 21 HR, 115 RC), Lance Berkman (.340, 29 HR, 114 RC), Adrian Beltre (.309, 48 2B, 27 HR, 110 RC) and Jim Thome (.303, 28 HR, 99 RC). The Squires' big bats were Albert Pujols (.327, 40 2B, 46 HR, 143 RC) and Vernon Wells (.292, 43 2B, 24 HR, 107 RC). The Squires' "Ace" was Ted Lilly (15-8, 3.97). Mudville finished in the basement. Joe Crede (.278, 37 2B, 26 HR, 86 RC) was their star. Gil Meche (13-13, 4.61) was their one pitcher in double-digits wins.

ALBANY Avalanche

Manager: Pat Barry (Elizabeth)

Age: 49 Occupation: Financial Analyst

The Season Story

In the Spring Albany assessed that they did not have the pitching to compete so AROD was traded for a bunch of prospects, most notably Howie Kendrick. The plan was to have a winning year but miss the playoffs and watch AROD have a miserable season in the Bronx. I had that exactly wrong. Albany's offense, even without AROD, was very good with Abreau, Hanley Ramirez and Atkins pitching in over 100 runs created each. The pitching was perhaps Albany's worst ever. Pedro Martinez battled injuries all year and finished far off past glories (7-7 4.40). Nate Robertson did what he could (14-6 4.42) and Casey Janssen was a revelation (13-10 4.43), but the rest of the starter all had ERA's above 6.00. Somehow Aaron Heilman came up with 30 saves which bordered on a club record. Next year, things look better.

ARKANSAS Travelers

Manager: Bill Jelks (Lynda)

Age: 64 Occupation: Retired USAF Officer

The Season Story

Another fine year for the Travelers as they compile a league-high 106 wins. Arkansas was again led by a pitching staff which has a composite ERA of 3.35, best in the TML. Chien-Ming Wang led the starting staff in wins (20) and ERA (3.19). The relief corps headed by B. J. Ryan was superb.

The Travs cruised through the first two rounds of the playoffs winning in 5 against Albany and sweeping Walla Walla in the Oceanic LCS. Arkansas met their fate in the World Series as they were swept by the Beverly Hillbillies in four close pitching duels.

BEVERLY Hillbillies

Manager: Mike Dickinson (Andrea)

TML Champion

Age: 38 Occupation: Scientist/Meteorologist

The Season Story

It all came together for the Beverly Hillbillies this season. Off-season trades to bring in Roy Halladay, Jake Peavy and Alex Rodriguez were key pieces to the teams plans. Halladay was nothing short of outstanding, winning 21 games and throwing a no-hitter. Peavy was a solid pitcher and a key building block for the future. A-Rod provided the perfect complement to Travis Hafner. Ryan Zimmerman and Ramon Hernandez contributed to the team's 2nd ranked offensive performance. Solid pitching performances from Jake Peavy and Freddy Garcia together with a solid bullpen anchored by Akinari Otsuka completed a well rounded team. Overall the BV pitching staff ranked 3rd overall. The Hillbillies managed to get by three very good and talented squads for the World Series title (the second for BV). BV has some youth in key places. However, some changes are in the wind for BV in what promises to be another active off-season.

BRANDON BigWheezMachine

Manager: Kyle Weisser (Lisa)

Age: 37 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

Brandon struggled mightily throughout the season, with the year end stats really showing the main problem, pitching, hitting and fielding. Brandon came in dead last in pitching and hitting and near the bottom in fielding. Beyond these negatives, a trade that sent Papelbon and Bonds away will allow Brandon three selections of the first 26 in a hope to build on these negatives. While the Papelbon trade may come to haunt the team, having a closer with no starting pitching seemed less important than filling holes and getting another first round draft pick. The future does hold some hope as Prince Fielder really stepped up to the plate and Johjima, Blake, Billingsley and Delmon Young all posted solid numbers, as did Mark Teahen and Orlando Hudson who came over on the Papelbon/Bonds trade.

BURLEIGH Blue Jays

Manager: Jim Pertierra (Janet)

Age: 58 Occupation: Supervisor - Verizon

The Season Story

Very Consistent year. Nothing to write home about on the road and nothing to write the road about at home. Carlos Beltran had a quietly explosive season and drove in 99 runs out of the lead off spot. I underused my favorite, ManRam which meant I might have gotten to .500. The pitching performed right on par with my record. In spite of the absolute "averageness" of this team, it was a lot of fun. Before I go, my thanks to my fellow managers for being such a rock solid group and to Mike for his 30 years of friendship as we have traversed the tabletop landscape together. My thanks also to Pat Barry for the great blog and wit and to Biff Barnes for the indispensable writeups each period. Still a fun loving kid --> Jim

CAROLINA Crawfish

Manager: Carl Schreck (Mary)

Age: 26 Occupation: Grad Student/Meteorologist

The Season Story

The Crawfish failed to come out of their shells this season. Moving to a tougher division meant fewer wins and more frustrations. Even if the team hasn't enjoyed it, the fans are loving the budding rivalries with Glenmont and Ghostwood. Those series will have fans on the edge of their seats for years to come. Team Captain Joe Mauer had another solid season, swiping 36 bags and coming just 7 points shy of a batting title. On the other end, Bill Hall disappointed by racking up 172 Ks and just 47 RBIs, while Chris Young & Huston Street were the bright spots on an otherwise dismal pitching staff. This team may need another shake-up, so look for Carolina's front office to boil a lot of Crawfish this winter.

CHETICAMP Micmacs

Manager: Eric Rogers (Barbara)

Age: 49 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

A fun season with my most successful non-playoff team yet. Thanks to overachieving starters (T and a strong bullpen, the Cheticamp nine stayed competitive in their first season in the highly competitive Ruth Division, staying in contention for the wild card through mid-September. Team MVP Adam Loewen (real-life ERA=5.37, TML ERA=2.98) was 3rd in the ERA race, with the bullpen led by the tag-team aces Dennys Reyes (2.24 ERA, 17 SV) and Rafael Soriano (2.03 ERA, 19 SV). Next years team looks to be weaker as 4 starters ended the MLB season on the DL.

The Season Story

About as much as expected taking over a team. Actually won more games than I expected. Major highlight was watching the real life statistics to see which players might play themselves into keepers and hoping that older guys would play themselves into greater trade value. Happy to say that there was success on both front. Will be renaming team as next step in reversing fortunes.

CRIMEA River

Manager: Bob Weisman (Janet - fiancée) 2008 Team Name Change

Age: 47 Occupation: Meteorology Prof. Lake Woebegone Staring Rabbits

The Season Story

Crimea put together a solid season without any huge ups or downs. There was a lot of offense from Sizemore, Berkman, Thome, and Beltre. There was also a lot of air conditioning(2nd highest strikeouts), thanks to Pat Burrell, Thome, and Beltre. The pitching was, well, reliable, counting on solid veterans like Randy Johnson, El Duque, and Jason Istringhausen, to make sure no one went home early. With all of the veterans here, this is the perfect team to move to the Land of 10,000 Lakes. Lots of sage wisdom, not too exciting, just pretty good. Minnesotans can't take too much excitement. And, with an improvement of a few games, all of our teams can be above average.

DANNY WAY Diamonds

Manager: Mark Hetterich (Connie)

Age: 60 Occupation: Instructional Designer

The Season Story

In a rebuilding year, DW was led by three members of their infield. Robinson Cano, 2b, led the team in hitting with a .305 average and 41 doubles. Michael Young chipped in at .299 with 40 doubles and newcomer to Danny Way, Chone Figgins hit .286 with 43 SBs. He also scored 115 runs. Danny Way pitching was again terrible, near the bottom of the league with a 5.60 ERA. John Maine in only 16 starts led the team with a 2.75 ERA and Vincente Padilla had 12 wins. Tim Hudson lost 20 games. Next season's DW staff should be much better with several pitchers having very nice years in the big leagues. Some offensive holes will have to be filled and the pen rebuilt. The future is looking better...wait 'til next year, wink.

GHOSTWOOD Pine Weasels

Manager: Kevin Tyle

Age: 43 Occupation: Computer Administrator/Meteorologist

The Season Story

At last, Ghostwood finally had a positive honor to celebrate--namely, Miguel Cabrera's batting crown, albeit by a razor-thin margin. Otherwise, it was another mediocre season. Offense, led by Cabrera, was better than past years, as the new double-play combo of Ian Kinsler and Yuniesky Betancourt had fine first campaigns for the Pine Weasels. However, the offense was still overly vulnerable to southpaws; first-base was a major problem; catcher Jason Varitek showed signs of age, and Brad Hawpe was a major disappointment in RF. Aside from a strong season by starter Zach Duke, the Ghostwood rotation was distinctly subpar, while the bullpen was barely adequate. Another few years of rebuilding look to be in the cards.

GLENMONT Haymakers

Manager: Dave Vollaro (Sandra)

Age: 44 Occupation: Research Programmer/Meteorologist

The Season Story

Numbers can be deceiving...Although the Haymakers finished a respectable 3rd in the division, they were a whopping 34 games out! This debacle was mainly due to the teams offense being, well, offensive. One bright spot was Michael Cuddyer, who finished up a strong campaign nearly taking the team triple crown(37/111/.297). On the flip side, real-life MVP Justin Morneau's TML numbers were far from MVP caliber. The pitching was only slightly better, as GL finished with an ERA over 5. Carlos "Big Z" Zambrano led the staff with a 16-13 record and was capable of dominating at any time(as shown by 8 starts w/2hits or less).

HIALEAH Thoroughbreds

Manager: Doug Grahm (Donna)

Age: 46 Occupation: Programmer/Analyst

The Season Story

Roy Oswalt was brought in to lead Hialeah to their first divisional title. He did his job, but the offense let the team down and the Thoroughbreds were on the outside looking in when the playoffs came around. Ichiro was the only offensive player to have a good season as the rest of the team simply did not seem to show up, especially on the road.

MAINE Liners

Manager: Mike Cempa

Age: 43 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

It was a disappointing season for the newly situated Maine Liners, and some blame the fact that this team has moved twice in as many years. At least the season went by without much internal turmoil (although rumors of pagan rituals continue). As for the team, the biggest disappointment was the starting pitching, which was woeful. The bullpen, actually, performed well, but on many occasions, the damage inflicted by the starters was too much to overcome. The offense faired no better. They hit with no punch, and had a penchant for striking out and hitting into double plays. Only Dallas McPherson, in a limited role, stood out, before an injury, and subsequent surgery, ended not only this season, but the next one as well. The organization would also like to wish a fond farewell to Brad Radke, who retired this season, after sticking with this team since he was drafted back in 1995.

MORDOR Marauders II

Manager: <vacant>

Age: xx Occupation: xx

The Season Story

Playing under no management this year, the re-located Mordor Marauders played themselves into a 3-way tie with Oklahoma and Traffic. The Marauders lost to Traffic the first playoff game and had to settle for 4th place. Nick Johnson (.306, 49 2B, 24 HR, 124 RC) and Carlos Lee (.301, 34 2B, 31 HR, 104 RC) were the offensive team leaders. Adam LaRoche (23 HR, 90 RBI) and Brandon Inge (42 2B, 28 HR, 87 RBI) provided additional support. The pitching staff was led by Jake Westbrook (15-11), Jose Contreras (14-8) and John Lackey (10-13). Armando Benitez (23 SV) shared "closer" duties with Derrick Turnbow (12 SV). This franchise has been looking for a stable home for some time now.

MUDVILLE Nine

Manager: Bill Graham (Cathy)

Age: 57 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

The Nine continued their losing ways, despite decent performances by Joe Crede, Aaron Hill, Ron Paulino, Gil Meche and Jeremy Sowers. The goal had been to win seventy games this season and we fell just two games short of that.

One of the highlights of the season had to be the May 14th game at Danny Way. Every Mudville starter had at least one hit as we beat the Way by a score of 19-5.

And of course, the long time ³rivalry² between M9 and Albany continued with the Nine winning 10 of 14. In fact Mudville had a losing record in the division.

OKLAHOMA Supercells

Manager: Mark Plate (Michelle)

Age: 42 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The Supercells had an up and down year, led by their high powered offense, but let down by their erratic pitching and defense. The offense lived and died by the long ball at times, which also contributed to the inconsistency shown by the team. The team rallied down the stretch to finish in a 3-way tie for 2nd in the Gehrig Division, and then proceeded to win in the tiebreaker playoff to earn a wildcard playoff spot. However, the offense sputtered against Beverly, and the Supercells were eliminated in 5 games by the Hillbillies. David Ortiz and Jermaine Dye formed a potent 1-2 punch in the lineup, combining for 117 homers and 315 RBI's. Ortiz led the league in homers, and Dye led the league in RBI's. However, both struggled in the playoff series against Beverly, and this contributed greatly to the offensive woes in that series. The pitching staff was led by Curt Schilling's 17 victories, but the rest of the starters were very shaky at times. Jon Lieber won 12 games, but was also hit hard at times. Bobby Jenks saved 34 games, but also had 9 blown saves. Will Ohman and Duaner Sanchez both had a nice season out of the bullpen, but the rest of the relief corp was as shaky as most of the starters.

RENSSELAER Strikers

Manager: Joe Nocera (Donna)

Age: 33 Occupation: Scientific Programmer

The Season Story

It was a winning season in Rensselaer, but another first round playoff defeat has enraged Striker Nation. Management's new closed door policy resulted in no trades to upgrade the horrid RS bullpen, which cost the team dearly in the post-season. "Striker Nation" has covered Nocera's front lawn with "For Sale" signs. There were a few bright spots. Young catcher McCann (24 HR, 105 RBI) powered the offense. Workhorse starter Carpenter (18-12, 3.06) led a solid group of starters. Rivera (2.22, 31 SV) pitched well from a bullpen filled with bums. The future does not look bright in Rensselaer as a rebuilding season appears to be on tap.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN Chinooks

Manager: Jeff Chapman (Sally)

Age: 41 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

It was a trek into unfamiliar territory this year. Pitching was thought to be the strength of the team (5.24 ERA-21st). Ironically, it was batting (.287 BA-5th) that carried the team, and summer stretch inconsistency (11-19) that ended up dashing hopes on the "Rocky" shores of the TML Gehrig. Either that, or the new Chinook Charity Drive. Instead of deferring salary, a memo from recent hire former White House confidant Karl Rove confused players into allowing extra BASES to opposing teams (most SB and WP). MVP Ryan Howard started the process of rewriting the franchise record books with several single season marks, featuring 59 HR. If not for getting out powered 3-0 in the final series by Juan Pierre, he might have had a shot at the TML season title. Pierre was later heard practicing for a new endorsement..."I've replaced his usual HGH...oops... coffee...with this instant..."

'SKAYUNA Squires

Manager: Hank Pedicone (Eileen)

Age: 57 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

This was a very strange season... like a box of chocolates: you never knew which team you were going to get. After teasing the fans with a scent of the playoffs going into October, all the wheels fell off. The shaky Squires pitching finally imploded, the lowlight being 17 homers surrendered in 7 games against the Blue Jays! Since the hitting, as usual, was fairly respectable (with Albert Pujols, Victor Martinez, Jimmy Rollins and Vernon Wells all producing well) management will once again spend the winter analyzing potential draftees who can pitch in 'Skayuna without their arms dropping off. Or maybe some kind of a cyber-humidor....?

TOXIC WASTE River Rats

Manager: Mike Landin (Teri)

Age: 54 Occupation: Professor/Meteorologist

The Season Story

The defending TML Champs were even stronger than their predecessor, but so was the competition! The offense scored over 1000 runs, with five (5) different players notching more than 100 RCs (Jason Giambi 151, Nick Swisher 134, Gary Matthews 132, Carl Crawford 109, Mark Teixeira 102). Morgan Ensberg was close with 95 RCs. Still, it was Giambi who was the most fearsome of them all, leading the TML in SLG & OBP. Gary Matthews set a franchise record for doubles with 53. The pitching staff was led by fan favorite, Greg "The Master" Maddux (22-7), who notched his TML career leading 350th win on his last start, his 52nd career shutout! Maddux has won 10 or more games in every one of his 19 seasons in the TML! Maddux was joined by fellow 300-game winner, Roger Clemens late in the season for the stretch run. Johan Santana (17-9), Kris Benson (16-10), Kenny Rogers (13-16) and Mark Buehrle (11-5) anchored a deep starting staff. The bullpen was led by "AKR" newcomer, "Fireman of the Year", J.J. Putz (0.91, 45 SV, 46 RP).

TRAFFIC Dodgers

Manager: Ken Fusci (Rozanne)

Age: 60 Occupation: Retired (NYSDOT)

The Season Story

The Traffic Dodgers went about as far as they should have gone this past season, narrowly missing the Playoffs via the three-way tie-breaker games for the last spot. The batting lineup proved formidable once again, with Jeter leading off with lots of hits and Guerrero, Ramirez, and Delgado knocking in lots of RBIs; but the pitching was mediocre at best with Escobar the only one with double digit wins (14-9). Thus, the Dodgers led the League in 1-run games played at 57, going a predictable 30-27. Next year looks promising, with the aging batting stars still putting up good numbers and the pitching staff generally improving their ERAs and W-L percentages.

VALPARAISO Drench

Manager: Alan Srock

Age: 26 Occupation: Grad Student/Meteorologist

The Season Story

This year was a proud year for the Drench, bringing home the first division title since the move of the franchise to Valparaiso and the first for the team since 1998! This year set a new team record for wins, thanks to another double-digit improvement over the previous year in the win column. The starting staff was anchored by Felix Hernandez (17-8), while a strong bullpen helped keep close games out of reach. Raul Ibanez and Troy Glaus both topped the 30 HR mark, while Chase Utley accrued over 100 runs created in nearly 700 at-bats! With a fairly young team and many key positions filled, this team should be a force to be reckoned with in the Steinmetz division for years to come!

WALLA WALLA Wombats

Manager: Bryan Sakolsky

Age: 40 Occupation: Financial Advisor

The Season Story

Walla Walla returned to the playoffs a year ahead of schedule. The late season acquisition of future Hall-of Famer Barry Bonds, and uber-closer Jonathan Papelbon surely helped that case. Rookies Nick Markakis (.320/.374/.473), Josh Johnson (10-7 3.91) and Cole Hamels (11-5 3.52 ERA) coupled with young stars David Wright (.316/.355/.581 38 HRs 136 RBI) and Danny Haren (15-10 3.18) carried the Wombats to a strong second place finish to a dominant Arkansas team.

Stat Key

Below you will find some explanations on a few stat categories:

RC: runs created (RC = [A times B] divided by C), where,

$$A = H + W + HBP - CS - GDP$$

$$B = TB + .26 \times (TBB - IBB + HBP) + .52 \times (SH + SF + SB)$$

$$C = AB + TBB + HBP + SH + SF$$

RC / 27 outs: runs created per 27 outs; in other words, the number of runs a player would create if he were to bat in all nine positions in the batting order.

QS: quality starts; the number of starts in which a pitcher pitches six (6) innings or more and gives up three (3) runs or less.

OAVG: the batting percentage against each pitcher.

Batting & Pitching Leaders: the following symbols were used to denote individual accomplishments that were record-breakers:

u - TML Record

ll - Tied TML Record

Team Stats: an asterisk (*) preceding any stat indicates that the player or pitcher led his Association in that stat category; a dot (.) indicates that the player or pitcher tied for the lead in his Association in that stat category.
