11/6/2020, AV20-MN20, PNC Park
 Pat Barry's Albany Avalanche outlasted Ross Lazear's favored Madison Danes in a worthy, hard fought 7-game series to wrap up the TML Franchise All Stars Tournament. Albany had swept Marco Island in Round 1 before escaping with a pair of 4 games to 2 victorys over Kentucky and Mudville to reach the final. Madison reached the final by edging past Vanderlyle in Round 1, winning 3 games to 2, before rolling over Duluth and Chesapeake, both by 4 games to 1. Madison was near the top in team offense, pitching and defense during the season, led by J.D. Martinez (134 RC), Jose Altuve (114), Jeff McNeil (96), Prince Fielder (101) and Max Scherzer (19-5, 2.79). For Albany, it was more of a balanced team effort, though closer Koji Uehara (40 Saves, 2.38) played a major role. It's back to current-day TML baseball in 2022.

The Season Story

I think I had the most fun in this league, running through time, putting the team together. I quick played the whole home regular season slate. I'm in lots of leagues and had a lot of time eaten up working for the Valley Cats. Something had to give. The team underperformed expectations by quite a bit. I was thinking regular season 100 wins or so. The MP got 84, probably some bad luck in there, but still, it is a lesson to play your games. I went to head-to-head play in the playoffs. The team was hot. It went on a 15-7 run against good teams despite some questionable managing by yours truly. The series against Rocky, Bill and Ross were a blast! It's too bad all our league games can't be face to face, but with so many in so many leagues, it's just impractical.

The Season Story

We started strong and slowly faded into the night but made the playoffs due to a disqualification of another team and, as expected met a quick demise.

The Season Story

I was excited to see the familiar names that once graced the glory days of the Cement Pond. The trip down memory lane was nice just not as good as I remember. Instead of the great years, the team only reproduced good (at best) to poor years. The offense was particularly disappointing as my big bats were quieter than expected. Similarly, the pitching was good but not great. Halladay and Verlander led the way with help from a deep bullpen. Come playoff time everyone disappeared. But, as I said, a nice but unsatisfying trip down memory lane.

The Season Story

The Black Sox All-Star Squad was competitive for the first two months of the season, but once June hit, their pen began to falter as did their playoff hopes. A 70-90 finish was a bit disappointing, but there were a few bright spots. Ronald Acuna was the offensive player of the year for the Black Sox .282/.347/.506, with 38 Home Runs & 108 runs scored. Aaron Bummer was the pitcher of the year as he led the staff with a 3.01 ERA. The All-Star season was fun, but am looking forward to the Regular Season in 2022 with our actual roster.

The Season Story

Season 2020 I paid no attention to MLB. Just got lucky with my Blue Jays, as all teams were stacked. Some how, I made the play-offs and played well. My favorite player is Buster Posey and I am glad we retired at the top of his game.

CHESAPEAKE Steaming Crabs

Manager: Eric Rogers

Age: 63 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The All-Star Crab team had a crazy up-and-down season, eking out a division title by one game over Camarillo. On paper the Crabs looked formidable but could never win consistently enough to put the division away early. The playoffs were another wild ride, as Chesapeake started out strong by beating New York 3-1 and then taking the first 3 games against Toxic Waste, after which the River Rats took games 4-6 and were within 8 outs of winning game 7 when the Crabs rallied to win the game and the series. The fun finally ended in the next round with a 4-1 drubbing by Madison, with a combined 27 HR (16 for MN, 11 for CH) in the series. The All Star Crabs were really the "2019+" Crabs with several key players from 2019 division winners (Soler, Castillo, Paddock). All in all, the format was a lot of fun and I hope we can do it again.

DULUTH Thundercats

Manager: Kevin Tyle (Bryan)

Age: 57 Occupation: Meteorologist/Computer Administrator

The Season Story

It was great to welcome back many of Duluth's best players during the 2010-19 decade. For the Thundercats, the balance fell very heavily on the pitchers, as Duluth led the league in ERA by a comfortable margin, with Stephen Strasburg as the ace. Offense, however, was a big problem, with Miguel Cabrera and Paul Goldschmidt having to carry the load every game. The Cats got off to a very fast start, with a 17-0 April homestand. That was enough to keep Duluth in the pennant chase for a while, until the superior Madison Danes took the lead later in the season. Duluth managed to win a close opening playoff round versus Camarillo, but were outmatched by eventual conference champion Madison in round 2.

GLENMONT Haymakers

Manager: Dave Vollaro (Sandy)

Age: 58 Occupation: Research Programmer/Meteorologist

The Season Story

Well despite fielding a bunch of "All Stars", the fans saw their beloved Haymakers vastly underperform. Manager Vollaro could only watch the season collapse into one gigantic black hole as Glenmont finished a league worst 40games under .500! In this Bizarro season Glenmont did lead the league in one category, losses by a pitcher! Tyler Mahle led the league with 21 losses to go with an ERA north of 7! The lone bright spot in the pitching department was a combined no hitter by E-Rod and Wade Davis. Although Machado led the team in HR(38) Alex Bregman was "Mr. Clutch" smacking 32HR, collecting 13 game winning hits(21% of the team wins)! Manager Vollaro thanked his players at seasons end, but cannot wait to get back to "real baseball" next season!

KENTUCKY WildCats

Manager: Rocky Hall (Alfreda)

Age: 65 Occupation: Retired / Business Owner

The Season Story

The WildCats (95-65) were only as good as the long ball. They hit 311 homers with a .236 BA with 865 runs. Chris Davis led the team with 60 long balls, Jose Bautista followed with 57, Mookie Betts 42, Erwin Encarnacion 34, and Matt Chapman 32. Mookie was Mookie, hit .307 w/40 doubles and 7 triples, stealing 58 of 81 attempts and scored 144 runs.

Pitching was chuck and duck as 240 taters were allowed as the WildCats had a 4.18 ERA, while allowing 712 runs. The 17 blown saves were a true indication that no lead was ever safe and the bullpen could never be counted upon. Finishing 2nd in the league in wins was surprising but not the early playoff departure to a superior team.

LAKE WOBEGON Staring Rabbits

Manager: Bob Weisman (Janet)

Age: 61 Occupation: Retired Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

The TML 2020 All Star's best offense was whatever team was facing the Lake Ball-Be-Gone pitching staff. The staff ERA was more than half a run worse than any other team and fell short of 1000 runs by 1. Only the Walla Walla offense (344 HR) hit HR than the Rabbits' staff yielded (319, one short of averaging 2.00 HR per game). Samardzija, who finished 6th in the Minnesota state bird (the gopher ball), and had the Ruthian extra-base-hits-allowed line of 51-10-50. But, they needed help from the bullpen to finish first in HRs. The combination of Hand, Salas, and Vizcaino served up 42 HRs in 149 innings (one HR every 3.5 innings). Hector Santiago (2-20, 7.88 ERA, 48 HR) and Alex Wood (6-16, 7.61 ERA, .355 opposing batting average) battled Ricky Romero (MG, 6-19, 8.25 ERA) for Sigh Young. Yeah, Lance Berkman created 114 runs, Jose Cruz finished top 10 in batting average, and Yulieski Gurriel led the league in doubles, but it was the pitching that was far more offensive.

MADISON Danes

Manager: Ross Lazear

Age: 38 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

The decadal franchise all-star season was a blast for Madison, as the team was near the top in both pitching and hitting stats through the season. Of particular note were JD Martinez' 48 HR, and Max Scherzer's 19-5 record with a 2.79 ERA. Madison finished with 96 wins, and nearly lost the wildcard round against Vanderlyle, before beating Duluth and Chesapeake, both in 5 games. All four playoff series were fun, but the championship was a classic, and manager Ross Lazear was left without fingernails, as Pat Barry and the Albany Avalanche came back after being down 3-1 to win the final three games and take the championship win. Madison looks forward to a return to "normal" next year, and can't wait for the rookie draft in February!

MARCO ISLAND Gators

Manager: Jayson Chapman

Age: 25 Occupation: Student/Engineer

The Season Story

This season was one of high hopes for the Gators all-star squad. This team was always going to be led by a potent offense dragging the lackluster pitching staff along kicking and screaming. The Gators offense was top in the league with a .268 team average thanks to a league high 1508 hits as team. With all the hype towards the offense it can be easy to oversee the Gators pitchers having the 2nd worst ERA in the league at 5.19. This high ERA came thanks to the 306 homeruns given up as a staff. The starters did their fair share of the damage by have a combined ERA well over 6.50 on the year. The team MVP for this Gators all-star team was Bryce Harper (.289 AVG, 34 HRs, 126.3 RC). In the end all of this offense and zero pitching led to a 74-86 record.

The Season Story

An All-Star Team is like a box of chocolates. You never know what you are going to get. The starting pitching was not expected to be very good and it wasn't. Jake Odorizzi was better than expected but the rest of the starters were not. The relief corps was expected to be good and with few exceptions lived up to expectations. The offense was not as good as expected although Judge and Aguilar did hit for power. Despite its shortcomings, the 9 could play tough at times. And it is hard to be unhappy with a team that made it to the Conference Championship round despite a sub-.500 season record. Looking forward now to rebuilding this team for the 2021 TML season.

MURDEROUS Crows

Manager: Mike Cempa

The Season Story

Suddenly in 2020, something happened in the fabric of time and timelines merged. An unexplained phenomenon! Somehow the best players from the last decade were all on the team at the time. For most teams these could be called all-star teams, but for the Murderous Crows, a long-suffering franchise, it was just another season without making the playoffs. As quickly as these players appeared, they vanished, and the Crows can return to their perpetual rebuilding.

NEW YORK Pigeons

Manager: Steven Perez

Age: 31 Occupation: Meteorological Field Technician

The Season Story

A season unlike any other begot a result unlike any other for the Pigeons as they secured their first postseason berth in their 5th season of existence. Powered by old, feathered friends like Ryan Braun, Charlie Blackmon and Jacob deGrom and familiar faces like Ian Happ, Tim Anderson and Fernando Tatis Jr., New York finished with an 83-77 record. Unfortunately, the Pigeons were grounded in Round 1 of the playoffs. Now that the Pigeons have pecked the playoffs they'll seek to continue that trend when the '19 team returns to The Pigeon Coop next season!

PERTH Diamond Cats

Manager: Steve Syzdek (Suzanne)

Age: 51 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

The All-Star Diamond Cats sparkled. Cheated a little (unintentionally). Got demoted a playoff spot because of that unintentional cheating. Beat the team that we flip flopped playoff spots with. THEN got covered in mud! Once that happened, all that sparkle got dulled and we end up writing few lines to sum up the season.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN Chinooks

Manager: Jeff Chapman (Sally)

Age: 55 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

As a team with only marginal success during the 2010s, we did our best to make a molehill out of a mountain. The starting staff had a gaudy 5.39 ERA, which seemed to be more of an issue with giving up untimely extra base hits than anything else. A not-so-consolation prize: Chinook pitchers did manage to miss more bats than all but Albany. Only Bastardo and Herrera managed to NOT lose a game. The offensive end of things only went marginally better - not a lot of power, and too many whiffs. If you had league leader in sac bunts (Pierre, 8) and sac flies (Arenado, 15) on your bingo card, you may be a winner! For the most part, the only thing golden was the glove work, with the Chinooks at the front of the class. We look forward to the 2020s.

SANTA ANA Winds

Manager: Rob Fovell (Mei-Ying)

Age: 63 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

The season started with high hopes for the Santa Ana All Stars, who seemed a pretty good team on paper and blew away the competition in pre-season simulations. However, by June 7th the Winds had lost all ten contests with Duluth and it was all downslope from there. Team pitching was good, 5th best in the league, but offense was anemic (6th worst batting average). The real version of Matt Reynolds (1.98 ERA) should sue his DMB counterpart (6.10 ERA) for defamation, as should Josh Edgin (1.32 vs. 5.40). The virtual Pete Alonso only managing 18 home runs and hitting 0.190 certainly didn't help. Maybe he should sue, too!

'SKAYUNA Squires

Manager: Hank Pedicone (Eileen)

Age: 71 Occupation: Retired Attorney

The Season Story

It was an interesting season. The 81-79 record of the Squires' All Stars was somewhat disappointing, until one realizes that the .506 winning percentage was nearly identical to 'Skayuna's .507 percentage over the 10 years from which the "all-stars" were drawn. The pitching of the other All Star clubs seriously depressed the Squires hitting, with no 'Skayuna hitter achieving a .300 batting average. Eduardo Escobar beat out Albert Pujols for the team HR lead 36 to 30, and no batter managed 100 RBI. Starting pitching was awful, wilting under the heat of all the All Star lineups. Robbie Ray managed to post a 5.12 ERA in spite of a real life 2.89 season, Archer and Gallardo were also over 5.00, and the others nearly reached that low point. A fairly effective relief corps led by Zach Britton, Billy Wagner and Nick Anderson kept the final record respectable. It will be interesting to see where the next decade will take us (in the TML and the real world).

TOXIC WASTE River Rats

Manager: Mike Landin (Teri)

Age: 68 Occupation: Retired/Senior Softball Player

The Season Story

This team was built around speed, defense and a deep, strong bullpen. However, this was not enough to overcome the lack of decent starting pitching. The five starters posted a QS% under 30%. Only one starter, Danny Duffy, won 10 games and his ERA was over 5. The bullpen (with 477 GRs) racked up over 90 RPs, with closer Aroldis Chapman leading the way with 33 SV and a microscopic 0.56 ERA! Only one player on offense reached 100 RC and that was Christian Yelich. The River Rats led the league in SBs, with the two biggest larcenists being A.J. Pollock (44) and Carl Crawford (38). This was a tough team to manage ... apparently too tough for the DMB MP, leading to a dismal .450 road WPCT. It was an interesting experiment during a real-life pandemic.

TRAFFIC Dodgers

Manager: Ken Fusci (Rozanne)

Age: 74 Occupation: Retired (NYSDOT); Part-time @Saratoga Casino

The Season Story

Did not have high expectations for this All Star version of the Traffic Dodgers, primarily due to the very average/mediocre Starting pitching rotation. But the biggest disappointments of the Season were the Batting lineup and the Relief pitching, two areas which appeared to be pre-Season strengths. Aramis Ramirez was the only player to exceed his Real Life AVG, while the rest of the lineup was below to way below their individual stats. The Pitching staff didn't fare much better, with only 3 pitchers improving upon their Real Life ERA. Thus, TR ended up mid-pack in Team AVG in the League, 17th in Team ERA, 2nd from last in the Oceanic Conference, and dead last in their own Steinmetz Division; all of which resulted in no Playoffs for the TR All Star Team. Looking forward to next year's Draft and a new full Season of stats to work with.

VANDERLYLE Crybaby Geeks

Manager: Joe Nocera (Shashi)

Age: 47 Occupation: Scientific Programmer

The Season Story

There was a fair amount of crying this season in Vanderlyle as the team failed to win close games. However, things turned around in the last month of the season and Vanderlyle snuck into the playoffs with a losing record. They then got up 2-0 on Madison in the first round of the playoffs before a large-scale crying event caused them to lose the last 3 games and exit the playoffs. The Vanderlyle offense was pretty good all season and was led by J. Ramirez (59 2B, 32 HR, 102 R, 98 RBI) and M. Kepler (42 HR, 94 RBI). The starting pitching was worse than expected as much of the staff thought they were tossing BP for the HR derby. J. Fernandez (3.24 ERA, 234 K) was the exception as he had a fine season. The bullpen was generally solid, but Mo Rivera (2.76 ERA, 27 Sv) uncharacteristically blew 9 saves. Vanderlyle is looking forward to the return of normal operations next year and possibly another run at the playoffs.

WALLA WALLA Wombats

Manager: Bryan Sakolsky

Age: 54 Occupation: Technical Sales Manager

The Season Story

Quite an interesting season, the best record in all the TML by 7 games and knocked out in 4 games by 8th place team, and decisively so. The Wombats lead the league in home runs hitting 344, beating the next best team by 33, and were the only team to score over 900 runs. Paul Konerko had an amazing season slashing .316/.391/.647 hitting 54 homers and driving in 105. Jose Abreu chipped in 45 HRs and 110 RBI. Javier Baez added 105 RBIs. Walla Walla catchers combined for 57 HRs and 122 RBI in 595 at-bats. The starting pitching was absolutely atrocious with Ervin Santana and Kyle Hendrick both winning 16 games and Cole Hamels adding 15 games, though all were underachievers. Cliff Lee and Ryan Dempster were fodder. It was a tale of two bullpens. Felipe Rivera was amazing going 13-3 with 19 saves and an ERA of 2.01. Alex Colom added 12 saves and a 2.95. Setup Matts: Bush and Thornton were both workhorses. But anticipated closer Jonathan Papelbon got off to a poor start and never fixed it. While he got 10 saves he had a 5.32 ERA

Stat Key

RC (Runs Created) = [(A times B) plus C], all divided by D, where

$$A = H + BB + HBP - CS - GIDP$$

$$B = TB + [.26 \times (BB - IBB + HBP)]$$

$$C = .52 \times (SH + SF + SB)$$

$$D = AB + BB + HBP + SH + SF$$

RC / 27 outs: runs created per 27 outs; in other words, the number of runs a player would create if he were to bat in all nine positions in the batting order.

QS (Quality Starts): the number of starts in which a pitcher pitches six (6) innings or more and gives up three (3) runs or fewer.

OAVG: the batting percentage against each pitcher.

Team Stats: an asterisk (*) preceding any stat indicates that the player or pitcher led the League in that stat category; a caret (^) indicates that the player or pitcher tied for the lead in the League in that stat category.
