They defeated Jason King's California Black Sox in a hard fought 7-game series, with one of the most thrilling Game 7s of any TML World Series (see above)! Albany had advanced to the World Series by defeating two tough ballclubs in Danny Way and Kentucky. For California, they edged Santa Ana and then cruised past Madison to reach their 2nd consecutive World Series. Albany co-Playoff MVPs were Mike Trout (.348, 17 RBI, 9 HR) and Yordan Alvarez (.317, 12 RBI, 5 HR).

TML Champion

The Season Story

The Avalanche won their first TML title since 2004. There were plenty of heroes. Player of the 2010s Mike Trout joined with potential player of the decade in the 2020s Yordan Alvarez to lead a nice offense. Freddie Freeman was also there as always to hit .300 and get over a hundred runs scored. The trade for Realmuto filled a big hole at catcher and Andrew Benintendi and Justin Turner did what they do. New shortstop Gimenez also filled a need. Gimenez was MVP in the championship series, Trout th post season MVP knocking seven homers. The balanced rotation of Kershaw, Manoah, Gonsolin, Anderson and Rasmussen was the heart of the staff. The bullpen featured three ace stoppers: Bard, Romano and Marinaccio. After many close call Albany got by a fine California team and brought the trophy back to Albany. Now the looks to reboot with its staff worn out.

The Season Story

Another long season for the Travs but some glimmers of light on the horizon as rookies Gabe Moreno and Vinnie Pasquantino and a few pitching improvements hopefully show a somewhat brighter future.

BERKSHIRE COUNTY Corndogs

Manager: Erik Tiele

Age: 54 Occupation: Golf Professional

The Season Story

Erik Tiele returned to the GM/Coaching position with the Corndogs after a long hiatus from Fantasy Baseball. An early season trade brought Kyle Schwarber, Jamison Taillon and Jonathan Schoop to the Club for Justin Verlander and Michael Brantley. The teams major highlight of the year was having Gerrit Cole lead the TML with 315 strikeouts on the season. Kyle Schwarber also finished in a tie for 5th with 38 round trippers. The Corndogs hope to improve their position in the league with a strong draft and a potential trade or two.

BEVERLY Hillbillies

Manager: Mike Dickinson (Andrea)

Age: 54 Occupation: Senior Scientist/Meteorologist

The Season Story

I was not sure what to expected this season as the Hillbillies defied logic and went with a rotation dominated by left-handed starters (142 of 160 games). Despite this unorthodox approach and Diamond Mind's predilection for bashing lefties, the left handers did remarkably well, leading to a wild card berth. The bullpen was also outstanding this year. Unfortunately, it was an underperforming offense (several hitters struggled to come close to their real-life statistics) that prevented the Hillbillies from advancing in the playoffs. Next year, I expect the team to take a step back as the pitching, both starters and relievers, regressed. We'll see what happens.

CALIFORNIA Black Sox

Manager: Jason King (Anne)

Age: 54 Occupation: Store Director

The Season Story

After losing in the 2021 World Series, California was determined to try and get back in 2022 and win it the second time around. So without any draft picks, California added several players via trade and waiver claim to try and help push them over the top. Sox pitcher of the year Justin Verlander was one of the biggest additions (16-2, 2.13 ERA), and Sox team MVP (and possible league MVP) Aaron Judge (.290/.386/.633 - 63 homers, 135 runs & 155 RBI) both helped carry the Sox to 108 regular season victories and a second consecutive Pertierra Division Title. California barely got by Santa Ana in Round 1, and Madison in Round 2 to take the Atmospheric crown in back-to-back seasons. So, California squared off against a loaded Albany squad in the 2022 World Series. The Sox took a 2-run lead to the bottom of the 9th in Game 7 of the World Series, and were 2 outs away from winning the TMLAM title! Unfortunately, it was not meant to be as Albany rallied and won Game 7 - 8-7. Overall, 2022 was a really successful season, an extremely fun season, and hopefully one day California will capture that elusive goal of a TMLAM title.

CHESAPEAKE Steaming Crabs

Manager: Eric Rogers

Age: 65 Occupation: Retired Meteorologist

The Season Story

It was feast or be feasted on by the 2022 Crabs: in the 1st half they went 34-46 and looked like they were headed for a 90-loss season. In the 2nd half of the season, they turned it around and went 48-32 to finish just over .500 for the year (and end up with a lower draft pick!). The offense was led by Arraez, Kwan, and Turner, with Christian Walker belting 39 HR, but didn't walk much and didn't score enough runs. Luis Castillo (2.61 ERA), Pablo Lopez (16-9) and Clay Holmes (27 for 29 in save situations) were the notable pitchers. Next year's team looks to have better offense and worse pitching; we'll see.

DANNY WAY Diamonds

Manager: Mark Hetterich (Connie)

Age: 76 Occupation: Retired & Full-Time Grandpa

The Season Story

The Diamonds had a nice year but finished 25 games behind Kentucky in the Ruth Division. The offense finished 9th in average hitting .250. Adrian Garcia led the O with 93 rs, 102 rbi, 27 doubles and 36 home runs. The pitching staff also finished in 9th with a 3.54 ERA. Miles Mikolas was the ace, winning 18 games. He had a 3.23 ERA. Jason Adam was the stopper with a 2.59 ERA and 26 saves. The Diamonds next season should be a contender again if they can bolster their pitching and pick up a bat or two. All 40 players on their roster will be carded again so a few deals will be necessary to trim the roster by 7 players. Thanks to Mike for all his hard work in keeping us knuckleheads on the correct path toward another successful TML American season!

DULUTH Thundercats

Manager: Kevin Tyle (Bryan)

Age: 59 Occupation: Meteorologist/Computer Administrator

The Season Story

Duluth went nowhere fast, with team stats near the bottom in all three categories. Only Ty France, Willy Adames, and Raisel Iglesias had what could be called quality seasons. As bad as this year was, 2023 looks truly ghastly. The Thundercats will need to hit some big Powerball and Mega Millions lottery picks the next few years to get back in the thick of things!

GLENMONT Haymakers

Manager: Dave Vollaro (Sandy)

Age: 60 Occupation: Scientist

The Season Story

The Haymakers started off slow and continued that way as the season went on finish 69-91. Glenmont was dead last in the league in hitting with a .215 avg. Their 1563 strikeouts "led" the league. This dismal performance at the plate prompted ownership to fire hitting coach Mario Mendoza and will bring in Haymaker legend Tony Gwynn for next season. Jorge Polanco led the team with 21 HR and Yandy Diaz hit .287. Glenmont pitching was middle of the road and could have been better if the team hadn't traded ace Sonny Gray in midseason. Framber Valdez led the team with 13 wins and his 2.83 era was 14th best among league starters. Ryan Helsey saved more than half of the team's victories. Manager Vollaro figures to be on the hot seat next season if he doesn't turn things around.

HOMESTEAD Grays

Manager: Mike Ameen

Age: 67 Occupation: Restaurateur & H.S. Softball Coach

The Season Story

First year Manager Mike Ameen saw the Grays go 70-90 finishing 3rd in the Pertierra Division. Homestead hit .237 as a team and were led by Xander Bogaerts .303 average and 37 doubles. Mountcastle hit 20 homers but the team only hit 113 total scoring 590 runs while it gave up 743. The Staff had a team ERA of 4.37 giving up 179 homers. Aaron Nola's 2.90 and 13 wins and Martin Perez's 3.73 and 11 wins lead the team while David Robertson chips in with a 2.96 and 10 saves. Having some time in the off season this year unlike last off season when the team was in a management transition GM Ameen will begin the process of rebuilding the team from the ground up. See you in 2024!

KENTUCKY WildCats

Manager: Rocky Hall (Alfreda)

Age: 67 Occupation: Retired / Business Owner

The Season Story

It was a great season for the Kentucky WildCats, finishing 117-43, despite failing to do a three-peat. (Not counting the All-Star Franchise year) The pitching, a 2.78 team ERA, defense, and home runs were once again what led the team. 299 doubles and 283 homers helped score 861 runs. Four hitters hit 30+ homers and two more missed it by 1 & 2. The WildCats had 3 20-game winners, Jose Quintana 20-2 2.02, Yu Darvish 20-6 1.82, and surprisingly German Marquez 23-4 3.37. Toukie Toussaint even tossed a no-hitter. Francisco Lindor was awesome, hitting .300 with 27 doubles and 43 homers, while scoring 108 runs and driving in 125. Paul Goldschmidt was a great leadoff hitter, hitting .317 with 40 doubles and 38 taters while scoring 129 runs and stealing 32 bases. The WildCats won 27 games in a row at one point. If not for a great Albany team.....

LAKE WOBEGON Staring Rabbits

Manager: Bob Weisman (Janet)

Age: 63 Occupation: Retired Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

It was the worst of seasons on both sides of the random number generator. The team was routinely awful in all categories (3rd worst in batting avg, 2nd worst in on-base, second worst in pitching, worst in defense). The only aspect that kept LW from losing 100 games was sometimes decent starting pitching, usually by Montgomery and Cueto, a good closer in Brad Hand, and middle-of-the-pack power, which meant that there were occasionally enough HRs to compete. Even with that, the manager tried to use up Chad Pinder as early so that Robert, Trayce Thompson, and Jose Miranda could be used down the stretch. So, of course, Pinder ended being L-LVP (least-least valuable player) with a surprising .463 slugging and the other guys tanked. The future looks to be more of a mess...we'll see if there are enough hits from Corey Seager and HRs from Paredes, Robert, and Burger to offset all the Ks and the weaker pitching.

MADISON Danes

Manager: Ross Lazear

Age: 40 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

Madison put together an exceptional starting pitching staff, with Gallen, Bieber, Scherzer, Cortes, Gilbert, and Severino all contributing to one of the best pitching staffs in the league. The offense was led by batting champ Jeff McNeil and lifelong Dane, Jose Altuve. With a first place division lead heading into October, Madison choked against Vanderlyle, with an 8-game sweep, falling out of first place. This led to a fun wild card series against Beverly, followed by a nail-biting seven-game win over division rival Vanderlyle. In the Atmospheric Championship round, Madison's lineup struggled against California's right-handed starting pitching, losing in five games along with one of the most memorable playoff games...a 15-inning marathon 15-11 loss.

MARCO ISLAND Gators

Manager: Jayson Chapman

Age: 27 Occupation: Engineer

The Season Story

What was supposed to be a promising season where the Gators were poised to take a big step forward, fate had other plans when it all came crashing down during the biggest series of the season. The Gators and manager Jayson Chapman not only faced division rival Rocky Mountain but familial rival manager Jeff Chapman. Unfortunately, the Gators couldn't pull through on the biggest stage and missed the playoffs by 2 games. There is hope that this team can take a big step forward next season with a few additions in the offseason. This year's offensive MVP was Jose Abreu (.306 AVG, 92 RBIs) while the pitching staff was led by the strong back end of the bullpen with outstanding years from Alexis Diaz and Devin Williams.

MUDVILLE Nine

Manager: Bill Graham (Cathy)

Age: 74 Occupation: Music Writer/Interviewer

The Season Story

It is definitely rebuilding time in Mudville. We knew going into the season the team would be bad. It was only a question of how bad. We had no starting pitching to speak of and will be even worse next year. Our offense was not bad and will likely be passable next season. Not all was bad this season. A late season split with Albany allowed the 9 to go out on a high not.

MURDEROUS Crows

Manager: Mike Cempa

The Season Story

The end of the season head scratching amongst the Crows organization and the faithful is reminiscent of a Head 'n Shoulders commercial. We shoulda made the playoffs! It wasn't the pitching, which with one or two exceptions was very good. Shane McClanahan is certainly a candidate for Pitcher of the Year, while Logan Webb and Noah Syndergaard pitched very well. The bullpen was even better than the starters with only one reliever finishing with an ERA over 4.00. The batting just wasn't there, at least not as anyone hoped it would be, Bo Bichette and Kyle Tucker couldn't find much power, and the offense was a big disappointment overall. Hopes for next year need to be tempered as several injuries and non-returning players may cut deep.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN Chinooks

Manager: Jeff Chapman (Sally)

Age: 57 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

Oh, the humanity! Rocky Mountain brought a paltry .124/.195/.165 offensive production to their first playoff appearance in years, made even more useless by the bump contribution of a 7.94 ERA. How does one eliminate the embarrassment of an 0-4 loss to Kentucky branded into minds of Chinook fans? Finishing best in a weak division? Nope. Focusing on a slightly better than league average pitching? Nope. Individual accolades? Willi Castro was clutch the entire season and Michael Harris II was electric. Ok, that's better. Stroman led the staff with 14 wins, but it was the unexpected Patrick Corbin and especially Hunter Strickland that held the bullpen together. Jhoan Duran pushed the limits of physics while picking up 23 saves. Starting to forget. It is pretty obvious that Manager Jeff Chapman cannot relate to the latest generation of players, so he vows to spend the off-season working on his Tik-Tok dances.

SANTA ANA Winds

Manager: Rob Fovell (Mei-Ying)

Age: 65 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

The 2022 Winds captured the Gatto again, albeit with 8 fewer wins, slightly weaker pitching, and an even more aggressively mediocre offense than last year. We drew the 108-win Black Sox in the playoffs, a team we had some regular season success against (6 of 10, 3 wins in each park). And we got to within 1 out of winning the series in 6 games! But then the clock struck midnight Eastern, we turned into pumpkins, lost Game 6 in extras, and had a pitching meltdown in Game 7. Amed Rosario again led in average (.309) and (at 16) had 46% of our triples, Ohtani and Alonso each connected for 27 homers (both down years), Max Fried (1.84 ERA, 19-8) and Shohei Ohtani (2.05, 15-4) shined on the mound, and Jon Gray (2.95, 13-5) and Merrill Kelly (3.17, 17-10) were solid. Turnover is coming; the 2024 Winds will look a lot different.

'SKAYUNA Squires

Manager: Hank Pedicone (Eileen)

Age: 73 Occupation: Retired Attorney

The Season Story

The Squires actually had a fairly successful year, posting 86 wins despite having to field a lot of marginal players throughout the campaign. We almost made it to the wild-card round, just missing in a 1-0 nail-biter playoff loss against Traffic, who were coming off a late season surge. Pitching was the key this season, with Brandon Woodruff leading the staff, and most of the TML, with a 1.96 ERA. The staff as a whole was second in the league with an ERA of 2.91. On the offensive side, however, the parade of scrubs produced only 571 runs, and only Rhys Hoskins (who will be taking next season off, along with Robbie Ray) was the only man to hit 20 or more HRs (23). Overall, 'Skayuna played better than expected... Unless there is an extremely successful draft, however, next season will be a tough one for the Squires.

TOXIC WASTE River Rats

Manager: Mike Landin (Teri)

Age: 70 Occupation: Retired/Senior Softball Player

The Season Story

The Toxins started out competitive, but the inexperience and youthfulness of the team caught up to them and the fade began. By season's end, they were in last place, but with 24 fewer losses than the year before! Budding superstar rookie Julio Rodriguez led the team in nearly ever offensive category, socking 25 HRs and stealing 20 bases! Spencer Strider emerged as the "Ace" of the staff, going 10-6, with a 2.38 ERA. Edward Cabrera was fabulous in a part-time role, posting a 9-0 record and a 1.71 ERA. Cabrera also came within 1 out of a no-hitter against Lake Wobegon in a series played in Yellowstone National Park! Once it was clear that the Toxins were not going to the playoffs, management pulled off yet another "blockbuster" trade with California, sending away Matt Carpenter, Taijuan Walker and fan favorite Edwin Diaz for a slew of draft picks for the 2024 Rookie Draft. The rebuilding plan will continue!

VANDERLYLE Crybaby Geeks

Manager: Joe Nocera (Shashi)

Age: 49 Occupation: Scientific Programmer

The Season Story

It was an unexpectedly good season for the Geeks as they won 101 games and overtook Madison late in the season to win the Robinson Division. The hidden strength of the team was quality unlimited players, Garcia (16-6, 3.58 ERA), Martin (14-11, 3.88 ERA) and Stefanik (418 OBP, 30 HBP). The batting was consistently good as Ramirez (33 HRs, 122 R, 101 RBI, 20 SB) and Reynolds (37 HR, 120 RBI) were the big run producers. The starting pitching staff was the strength of the team led by Burnes (18-9, 2.41 ERA, 278 K) and Alcantara (16-8, 3.23 ERA, 11 CG, 250.2 IP). Vanderlyle's late season surge meant they avoided the wild card round, but an angry Madison team got revenge in the conference semifinals by knocking out the Geeks in 7 games. The Geeks will likely be competitive next season, but seem to be stuck at a level of being good enough to make the playoffs but not win a championship. Lettuce sea.

WALLA WALLA Wombats

Manager: Bryan Sakolsky (Carol)

Age: 56 Occupation: Sales Director

The Season Story

The Wombats remain in a rebuild mode after the organization fell apart during the unique 2020 season. Other than Dane Dunning (15-10) no other Wombat pitcher had more than 8 wins and only two others had winning records. Kyle Hendricks lost 21 games just ahead of (behind?) Kris Bubic who lost 20. Scott Barlow had 21 saves in just 33 appearances. As for the "offense," it was a trying year as well. Of those who qualified for the batting title K'Bryan Hayes led the team with a .233 batting average. Marcel Ozuna led with 18 home runs and 62 RBI. Rookie Corbin Carroll showed a lot of promise in his brief trial with the club slashing .284/.338/.554 with 3 HRs and 2 SBs in 74 at-bats.
