ALBANY Avalanche

Manager: Pat Barry (Elizabeth)

The Season Story

Albany returned its potent lineup from its 2022 Championship, but unfortunately the same could not be said of its pitching staff resulting in a divisional series ouster. Matt Olson led the league in Runs Created and old reliable Freddie Greeman hit ,307 with 54 doubles and 237 homers. Yordan Alvarez was injured a bit this year, but still pitched in with 29 doubles and 28 home runs. Mike Trout had MVP quality numbers in his half season. Mark Vientos, a 2022 7th round selection, and Zachs Gelof and Neto look for bigger roles next year. The pitching staff was led by Clayton Kershaw (15-3 2,48 ERA). Chris Sale made 20 decent starts but the other starters flirted with or did not achieve mediocrity. Sam Moll was the best reliever by far. Even closer Justin Romano struggled. Next year Sale and Garrett Crochet anchor the staff. Depth again will be a problem. Where Albany finishes next year will be dependent on how well they draft.

The Season Story

When one finishes with a league "best" 114 losses there ain't much good to relate! Trav pitching staff posted a staggering 5.65 ERA and "hitters" slugged a fearsome .231/.302/379 batting line! On the slightly positive side, this is a very young team with several highly rated prospects.

BERKSHIRE COUNTY Corndogs

Manager: Erik Tiele

Age: 55 Occupation: Golf Professional

The Season Story

The Corndogs finished the season with a 65-95 record for the 2024 season, a two game improvement from last season. GM Erik Tiele, stated that with the teams move from the Ruth to the Pertierra divisions should not have influenced the team it did have a slight affect due to the acclimation of the new teams. Kyle Schwarber once again led the team in home runs and rbi's. It also appears that Nolan Jones has found a place in the starting lineup. The pitching staff was again led by Gerrit Cole with 10 wins. He also reached the 200 innings pitched plateau and had 200 strikeouts. Evan Phillips led the team with 24 saves. There could be some significant changes coming this season with some aging players looking to get moved to playoff contenders. Only time and the checkbook will tell.

BEVERLY Hillbillies

Manager: Mike Dickinson (Andrea)

Age: 55 Occupation: Senior Scientist/Meteorologist

The Season Story

A great season turned into misery with the Hillbillies collapsing at the worst possible time. The team did not have a lot of all stars but did have a decent offense, quality starting pitching, and a depth bullpen - combining to put up 105 wins in a tough league. The offense was thin but effective. Austin Riley had an uneven campaign but still hit 34 homeruns. Josh Naylor and Wander Franco were the only regulars to hit over .300. The top win total on the staff was 13 (Steele and Heaney). It was the bullpen that set the team apart, racking up 77 saves. The Hillbillies made it to the World Series, only to collapse when it counted most. The roster will need to evolve to prepare for the next playoff run.

CALIFORNIA Black Sox

Manager: Jason King (Anne)

Age: 55 Occupation: Store Director

The Season Story

The Black Sox had a terrific regular season, tying 2 other teams for the best record in the TML (105-55). California won the Pertierra Division for the 3rd straight season, and then faced off against Madison in Round 1 for the third straight season. In a thrilling 7 game series, California won Game 7 in the 12th inning on a 3 run walk off home run by Manny Machado. For the third straight season the Black Sox moved on to the Conference Championship, and for the first time lost.....California lost to Beverly in another thrilling 7 game series in which California lost this time in the 12th inning of game 7. It was a great season for California....but they came up just short for the 3rd straight season. Aaron Judge was the offensive MVP (.273/.404/.600, 36 HR's, 88 runs, 79 RBI), and Zack Wheeler was the pitching MVP & maybe league CY Young (20-5, 2.18 ERA, 223 IP, 156 hits, 54 walks, 258 K's). The Black Sox were lucky enough to lead the league in ERA (2.76), and had the top 4 ERA finishers (Wheeler 2.18, Mike Clevinger 2.25, Sonny Gray 2.51 & Justin Verlander 2.53).

CHESAPEAKE Steaming Crabs

Manager: Eric Rogers

Age: 66 Occupation: Retired Meteorologist

The Season Story

A fine season for the Crabs, making the playoffs as one of the Atmospheric Conference wild-cards with 96 wins, the best in the franchise's history in the current day TML American. The rotation was solid, led by Castillo (15-10, 3.13 ERA) as all but one starter had an ERA under 4.00. Swanson (1.77 ERA) and Holmes (25 SV) stood out in the bullpen. Luis Arraez (.338 BA) just missed out on another batting crown, and plenty of power was provided by Muncy (40 HR) and Walker (33 HR, 110 RBI). The playoffs started well with a 4-2 win over Toxic Waste in the wild-card round, but the Crabs then fell into the deep end of the "Cement Pond", being swept by the Beverly Hillbillies in the Division Series. Next year: likely not as good as injuries decimated the rotation.

DANNY WAY Diamonds

Manager: Mark Hetterich (Connie)

Age: 77 Occupation: Retired & Full-Time Grandpa

The Season Story

The Diamonds were a good team but not a championship caliber team. They were led by their pitching staff that ranked 7th in ERA. Miles Mikolas started 5 games, had a 3.28 ERA, and a 16-12 record. The Diamonds' pen was the strength of the team. The pen had 4 pitchers with under a 2 ERA and 10 with a 3.24 ERA or lower. The offense only hit .238 but they did have some pop. Adrian Garcia hit 30 HRs and had 40 doubles. Chas McCormick in a part-time role hit .327 and clubbed 17 HRs in less than 250 at bats. Similar results are expected next season, good but not great with the pen the strength of the team.

DULUTH Thundercats

Manager: Kevin Tyle (Bryan)

Age: 60 Occupation: Meteorologist/Computer Administrator

The Season Story

The long and slow decline of the Thundercats hopefully reached its nadir in 2023. The few highlights were a solid rookie season on the hill by Andrew Abbott. His real-life teammate Hunter Greene struck out 167 in 117 innings, despite an ERA more than 5. The offense was “offensively” bad ... not a single regular managed an OPS of .800 or higher (however, our steal success rate was .800, for what it is worth)! We look to have a better year in 2024 with improved pitching, but it will take a couple more fruitful rookie drafts for some green shoots to emerge on the Lake Superior shoreline.

GLENMONT Haymakers

Manager: Dave Vollaro (Sandy)

Age: 61 Occupation: Scientist

The Season Story

The Haymakers struggled and muddled through another losing season. Middling pitching combined with a league-worst batting average led to another 63-97 campaign. Yandy Diaz was among the league leaders in average, and Juan Soto led the team in with 36 HR and an OPS of 0.914. The high point of the season was having Griffin Canning come within one errant throw of a perfect game. He had to "settle" for just a no-hitter against Lake Woebegon! The team is projected to be better next season, only time will tell if the management can turn this hope into actual wins.

HOMESTEAD Grays

Manager: Mike Ameen

Age: 60 Occupation: Restaurateur & H.S. Softball Coach

The Season Story

Homestead finished its 1st year under Manager Mike Ameen with a lack luster 68-92 record finishing 37 games behind pace setting Kentucky in the Ruth Division. The Grays were led by Aaron Nola and his 18-7 record to go along with a 3.91 ERA. He was helped in the bull pen by Ryan Brasier (12 Saves 2.52) and David Robertson (10 Saves 2.64). The offense was led by Xander Bogaerts and his .303 average with 18 homers and Carlos Santana who hit 26 homers and drove in 95 runs. Francisco Alvarez chipped in with 30 HR's. Hopefully with a year under his belt Manager Ameen will draft well and the climb up to relevance with have begun.

KENTUCKY WildCats

Manager: Rocky Hall (Alfreda)

Age: 68 Occupation: Retired / Business Owner

TML Champion

The Season Story

I never know what to say when I win a Championship. Am I supposed to be humble when I have just finished winning IT all? That is hard to do. This Kentucky WildCats team was a pretty good team. They beat a really very good team, Beverly, which had defeated, in 7 games, a pretty much great team, California. In the 2nd round of the playoffs the WildCats beat a team, 'Skayuna, that had beaten a great team, Albany, which was trying to repeat. The way was cleared and Kentucky waltzed right in with some clutch hitting, pitching, and the greatest luck that any team could have had. Betts, Goldschmidt, Lindor, were superstars supported by role players. Webb was the only ACE on the team, but the bullpen was great with Hoffman, Miller, and Bednar, having saved 41 games. A total team effort wrapped around great defense and great luck. Hats off to Pat and Jason who should have been there too.

LAKE WOBEGON Staring Rabbits

Manager: Bob Weisman (Janet)

Age: 64 Occupation: Retired Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

The Staring Rabbits were not capable of much, finishing 23rd in pitching, 16th in average (18th in on-base pct), and 21st in defense. What they could do is hit home runs (2nd to Albany), as Cal Raleigh (41) and Isaac Paredes (38) finished in the top 5 and Seager, Robert, and Drury had 29 or more taters. Corey Seager ended up leading the league in OPS and slugging, although he missed a lot of games. LW won when the homers came with runners on, which was not that often given the poor other stats. When Jordan Montgomery (top 20 in ERA) and Kirby Smart (sometimes) were pitching, the Rabbits had a shot, which allowed them to avoid 90 losses. Still, LW had otherwise awful pitching, a 44% blown save rate and the highest percentage of inherited runners scoring, and allowed more than 100 stolen bases. The future looks awful as a significant percentage of players will be no cards, unlimited, and/or look like one-year wonders. As ABBA would sing, SOS!

MADISON Danes

Manager: Ross Lazear

Age: 41 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

Madison had yet another a great season, winning the Robinson Division by 14 games, only to run into the California Black Sox in the playoffs for the third straight season. This time, Madison made things interesting, as the home team won each game in the series, making for a thrilling, but heartbreaking 12-inning Game 7, capped by a Manny Machado 3-run walkoff HR off Madison's normally "lights-out" RP, Kevin Ginkel. Madison's well rounded team finished the season in second place in both team batting average and ERA...the pitching led by an outstanding bullpen, and the offense led by Carpenter, Altuve, Estrada, and Martinez. Next year, the team looks strong, too, but injuries broke up the normally deep rotation, which will have to be addressed in the off-season.

MARCO ISLAND Gators

Manager: Jayson Chapman

Age: 28 Occupation: Engineer

The Season Story

A scene pulled straight from the 2022 season, the Gators faced off against interdivision rivals RM with the season on the line in the final month and yet again proved the lights were too bright for this aging team. The elder Chapman was able to take out the younger one in the highly anticipated familial rivalry series. There is hope that in the coming season that new young acquisitions will help propel this team back into the playoff picture in the 2024 season. This year the Gators were lead offensively by Bryce Harper (.286 AVG, 92.4 RC) while the pitching staff was led by closure Josh Hader (2.20 ERA and 12.5 K/9).

MUDVILLE Nine

Manager: Bill Graham (Cathy)

Age: 75 Occupation: Free Lance Writer

The Season Story

Mudville was looking at a rebuilding season yet for a time a wild-card berth appeared to be a possibility. Of course, appearances are often times deceiving and the Nine once again finished at just under .500. Our pitching situation is improved going into next season but not likely to have any Pitcher of the Year candidates. As for the offense, it will be Vlad Guerrero, Jr. and one or two others. A step up or a step back? Time will tell.

MURDEROUS Crows

Manager: Mike Cempa

The Season Story

A rebuild is always painful in the short term, and maybe extra painful in the first year. The starting pitching was decimated by injuries, and it showed. There was some good work in relief, which was probably the only thing that prevented this team from ending up with the worst record in the league. However, a few of the younger starters offered some hope. The offensive was perfectly OK, which does not get you much. The only stand out was Kyle Tucker, who had Avery good year at the plate.

NEW YORK Pigeons

Manager: Steven Perez

Age: 34 Occupation: Meteorological Field Technician

The Season Story

The Pigeons are finally starting to get some air beneath their wings! New York turned in its first >.500 season outside of the COVID Era. Fantastic pitching from staff ace Kyle Bradish and exciting offense from the likes of Fernando Tatis Jr. had punters cooing with excitement! This flock will return many of its key contributors for the '24 season and are excited for some of its younger players to really start flying.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN Chinooks

Manager: Jeff Chapman (Sally)

Age: 58 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

Well, Chinook fans have seen this story before. Marginally good season in a terrible division makes for a last minute division title. Team goes down in flames to perennial opponent Kentucky (this time 0-4). Way too many strikeouts and far too little clutch hitting. Michael Harris II paced the offense (.296 BA/.485 SLG, 18 SB, 91 R) and had a legit power threat in Arenado/Bellinger who each drove in 102. Ruiz ran wild and swiped 58 bases. On the bump, Patrick Corbin was a dark horse earning 15 wins and 4 CG, but this simply is non-sustainable. Flaherty a bit unlucky with support, but did finish north of 200 whiffs. Some decent arms at the end of the bullpen, but the offense looks to tank next year so will be playing for the lottery it appears.

SANTA ANA Winds

Manager: Rob Fovell (Mei-Ying)

Age: 66 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

Shohei Ohtani, the Winds' very first draft pick in 2019, had an MVP season: 0.304/0.412/0.654, 44 HRs, ERA+ 142. Oh, wait, that was real life. His DMB doppelganger came up just a wee bit short: 0.237/0.355/0.536, only 30 HRs, 8-9 and a 4.04 ERA, winding up way down the leaderboards. The rest of the team sagged too. Suzuki had the best average (0.287) on a team that ranked 20 of 24 in that department. Our middling pitching was led by Max Fried (2.58 ERA), who was limited to 14 starts. Our rebound next year will be limited by some unlucky drafting: Rookie Encarnacion-Strand will sit next season and I bet on Saalfrank in the draft but he bet on baseball. Ouch. But, Bowden Francis and Connor Wong will provide some hope on the mound and behind the plate and Fried will take the ball more often. And maybe, just maybe, the real Shohei will show up next year. Stranger things have happened.

'SKAYUNA Squires

Manager: Hank Pedicone (Eileen)

Age: 74 Occupation: Retired Attorney

The Season Story

This was an incredible run for the Squires! Chugging along on its typically mediocre track through September, the team came up with a 13-3 record in October to secure the last Wild Card slot. The Squires came back from a 3-2 deficit to take the Wild Card round from Danny Way with a pair of 6-5 squeaker wins, then managed to take out Division-winning Avalanche in six games. Of course, all the wheels fell off as 'Skayuna fell to the eventual champion Wildcats in a convincing sweep, but it was fun while it lasted. The Squires had only a modest offense in the regular season, with George Springer leading the team with a mere 24 HR. Only two starting pitchers had double-digit wins (Houck 14, F. Peralta 13), but the relief corps was a big factor in a surprisingly satisfying run. There are a lot of holes to fill for next year, but...who knows?

TOXIC WASTE River Rats

Manager: Mike Landin (Teri)

Age: 71 Occupation: Retired/Senior Softball Player

The Season Story

The Toxins made the most of the tools at hand ... mainly their speed. The team shattered the TML Record for SBs in a season with 483 SBs! Five players had 50+ SBs, led by MVP Ronald Acuna's 110 SBs! Acuna also established the "50/110 Club" by socking 50 HRs to go along with his SBs. However, hidden in the stats was the fact that despite the huge number of SBs, the team scored only 722 runs! The strength of the team's pitching staff was the bullpen. Ryan Borucki and Tom Cosgrove combined for 43 saves and 50 RPs! Spencer Strider and Graham Ashcraft led the team in wins, with 15 each. The Toxins first return to the post season since 2018 as a Wild Card was a short one. The outlook for next season is bleak! Major injuries to top stars Acuna, Rodriguez, Yelich, McLain and Strider, along with the entire bullpen going AWOL, will make for a long season and a setback in the rebuilding effort.

VANDERLYLE Crybaby Geeks

Manager: Joe Nocera (Shashi)

Age: 50 Occupation: Scientific Programmer

The Season Story

The Geeks were unable to recover from a poor start to the season and threw in the towel in August. Sonny Gray (14-2) was traded away. Lack of offense and poor starting pitching plagued the Geeks throughout the season. The bullpen by committee, led by Peguero (10 Sv, 1.55 ERA), was the strength of the team. After the trade of Gray, Lorenzen (10-8, 3.56 ERA), became the "ace" of the starting staff. The otherwise weak batting was led by Reynolds (30 HR, 95 RBI), who had a fine season. Correa (612 OBP, 26 GDP) was awarded the team LVB (Least Valuable Bum) award for his performance this season. Overall, the Geeks should improve next season, especially against left-handed pitching, but one never knows what DMB has in store.

The Season Story

This is still a work in progress. We finished 61-99 so the good news is we did not lose 100 games. We lucked out in the lottery and will move from the #3 pick to the #2 pick. One highlight was Meneses hit in 26 consecutive games. We have some pieces to build upon and we look forward to the draft to add to the blue chip talent on the team. We expect that we should be competitive in the next 3 years and start to challenge for a playoff spot within 5 years.

WALLA WALLA Wombats

Manager: Bryan Sakolsky (Carol)

Age: 57 Occupation: Sales Director

The Season Story

It is another season of futility for a franchise used to better times. After finishing in the lottery pick zone last year, the Wombats moved towards .500 going 73-97 but finishing 9 games behind the division leaders. The offensive highlights were led by Corbin Carroll (.305/.380/.490 22 HRs, 55 SBs, 96 RBI, 106 runs) and Ke'Bryan Hayes (.304/.338/.545 23 HRs, 95 RBI). DH Marcell Ozuna drove in 106 with 34 HRs. The surprising performance of the year goes to Ryan Noda: .246/.381/.533 with 21 HRs in only 276 at-bats. The pitching staff was awful. Rookie Reese Olson led the team with 10 wins. Brady Singer was the only pitcher to qualify for the ERA crown with a 6.14 ERA. Closer Jordan Hicks had 21 saves, with 11 blown saves.
